Freedom Jam

Teaches American History
in Their Own Special Style for Wisdom
Pioneers

That's Showbizz!

There's no better way to start the school year than with a real saucy, fast-moving lesson in American History. The textbook is music. The teachers are colorfully dressed singers with well developed senses of humor. The electricity is on and "Freedom Jam" is ready to entertain.

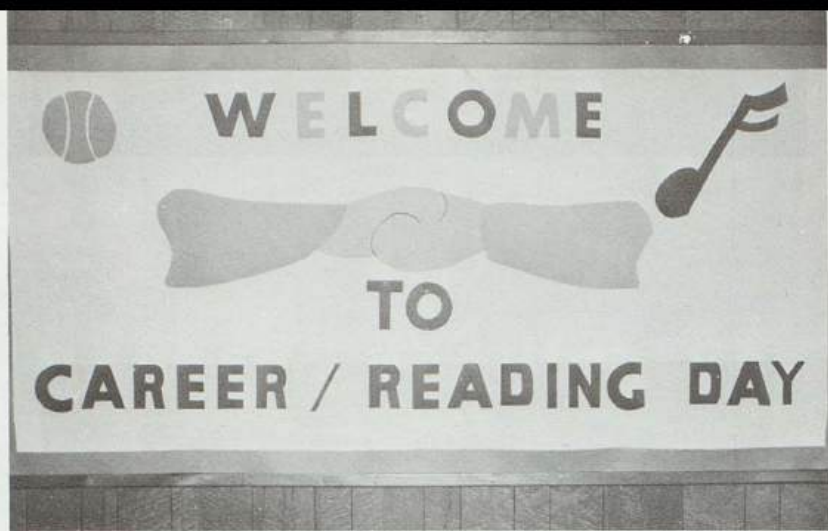

The forty-five minute performance centered on the American bicentennial. The program began with Van Halen's "Panama" followed by lively skits depicting well known personalities in American history. There was a message to the audience from one band member about the future of this great country. He stressed patriotism and personal involvement as the basis for our continued success in maintaining the rights and freedoms that we have today.

After much more music, the program closed with the song "Proud To Be An American" which left everyone in a highly charged spirit of patriotism and excitement.

Career Reading Day

What To Do!?

What's in store for the future is always on the minds of Wisdom students. The idea of having to choose a career often leaves them in an anxious state. In an attempt to relieve some of the confusion, Mrs. May Albert, Wisdom Librarian, presented an impressive display of a wide variety of books and pamphlets dealing with the world of work. Many students spent a good deal of time perusing through the available information in search of their unique career possibilities.

A big THANK YOU!! goes out to Mrs. Albert for her creativitiy and energy given to the perparation of this very successful CAREER/READING DAY.

A candle is but a simple thing:
It starts with just a bit of string
Yet dripped and dipped with patient hand,
It gathers wax upon the strand
Until, complete and snowy white,
It gives at last a lovely light.
Life seems so like that bit of string:
Each deed we do a simple thing,
Yet, day by day, if on life's strand,
We work with patient heart and hand,
It gathers joy, makes dark days bright
And gives at last a lovely light.

MSAD 33 Administration

Garfield

King

Superintendent

No matter where you look in MSAD 33, you will find very few who are as dedicated to the educational experience of all students as are the people on these two pages. Mr. King constantly demonstrates perseverance and strength of character in the performance of the duties of his office. While his stance may not always be a popular one, you can be sure that his energies are always directed towards the improvement of MSAD 33 as a whole. For all your efforts, Mr. King, we send our sincerest thanks.

It has often been said that behind every successful man there is a strong woman (or something to that effect). Well, behind Mr. King are three very important women. Of course, there is Mrs. King who can man the helm with the best of them, but also there are Mrs. Pat Bourgoïn and Mrs. Gloria Gervais without whom many tasks would seem insurmountable. These two sweethearts are constantly friendly and always ready and willing to help. We are very fortunate to have such qualified and amiable professionals working for use in the main office. To you also, Mrs. Bourgoïn and Mrs. Gervais, our thanks.

Mrs. Gloria Gervais
District Bookkeeper

Mrs. Patricia Bourgoïn
Secretary to the Superintendent

Wisdom High School and Junior High Principal Paul Bouchard

Certainly more visible to the students and teachers than the main office personnel are those individuals working within the office of the school building itself.

Mr. Paul Bouchard's complete dedication to his job ensures that his duties as Principal are always performed to the very best of his abilities. His over ten years of experience as Principal of Wisdom High School have given us a firm but compassionate leader whose strength of character can only be an asset to all who work at Wisdom and for MSAD 33. Of course, like any one man, Mr. Bouchard cannot do it all by himself. We must all strive constantly toward the common goal of a smooth-running, friendly, safe and just environment at Wisdom.

Two ladies who are instrumental in the achievement of this desirable goal are Mrs. Claudia Morin and Mrs. Irma Sirois. While almost constantly under the pressures of being overworked, they still manage to maintain a friendly smile and are always ready to lend a helping hand when they are needed. This continued pleasant attitude may come from the fact that Mrs. Morin doesn't mind hearing a good joke and Mrs. Sirois doesn't mind telling one. This combination leads to laughter which is, after all, the very best of medicines. Mr. Bouchard, Mrs. Morin and Mrs. Sirois, we cannot thank you enough.

Mrs. Irma Sirois
Secretarial Aide

Mrs. Claudia Morin
Secretary to the Principal

Wisdom's Maintenance Staff

Who fixed that door knob, broken chair or desk, stubborn candy machine, broken window, leaky roof? Who shoveled that snow, washed those windows, swept those floors? Who got that ladder for you, found you that hammer, wired that thing or plumbed the other thing? Who cut that grass, painted that building, adjusted your heaters, wiped up that spill, helps Lisa Tardif on and off the bus? Who smiles when you pass them and returns that "good morning?" Who carries the heavy stuff for the cooks — the trash to the dump. Who drives the students home safely? Our janitors, that's who! We've only touched on a fraction of their total contribution to our school. Guys, we just couldn't do it without you. A million thank you's!!

Wisdom's Food Preparation Staff

We cannot overlook the important connection between eating and learning. Proper nutrition gives us the energy we need to do our best in school. These hard working lovelies see to it that Wisdom's food is properly cooked, nutritious and attractively served. Under the gentle yet firm guidance of the kitchen supervisor, Mrs. Joan Cyr, kitchen and cafeteria duties run smoothly and efficiently. Thank you, ladies, for caring. From Left to Right: Mrs. Jeanne Chasse, Mrs. Doris Chamberland, Mrs. Raymonde Ouellette, Mrs. Lucille Michaud, Mrs. Joan Cyr, and Mrs. Pat Morin.

GOING ONCE TWICE SOLD

Two very satisfied slave owners.

The festivities begin with the sale of the Freshmen as slaves of the Seniors. This year the Seniors collected an incredible $479.80 during this riotous fund raiser. Among the Freshmen who were purchased for the highest amount possible were Nora Picard, Lisa Derosier, Craig Ayotte, Janice Nadeau and Paul St. Pierre. "Best Costume" was won by Paul St. Pierre who was dressed as the McDonald Goblin and Diane Albert, dressed as the Statue of Liberty.

Band Fever!!

Have you ever felt the urge to just get out there and with all of your might, with every fiber in your body be somebody you're not? Well, thirty-eight Wisdom boys got down on March 20, 1985 and did just that. A capacity audience was entertained with music from Kiss, ZZ Top, Iron Maiden, Helix, Motley Crue, Bon Jovi, Wasp, and David Lee Roth to mention only a few, while Wisdom boys mimed to the beat of the words and the music on entirely home-made instruments and props.

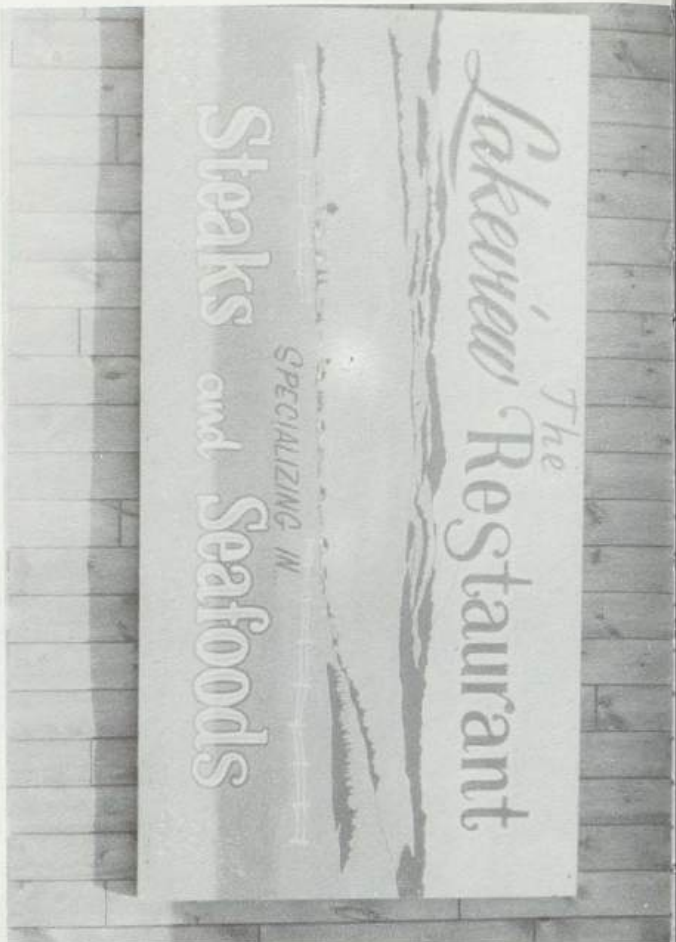

Masters of ceremony were: Steve Collin and Peter Daigle. Judges for the contests were: John Dubois, Gary Michaud, Elaine Michaud, Gary Morin, Charles Ouellette, Lisa Bosse and Stella Sirois, all former students of Wisdom High School. This National Honor Society sponsored event was a tremendous success without a doubt.

SOPHOMORES — Andre Albert, David Hebert, Edward Latham, and Tina Ouellette. FRESHMEN — Cindy Albert, Gayle Bouchard, Kelly Cyr, and Wayne Morneault. Congratulations to all!

Congratulations Graduates!

VOICES OF THE PAST

You have gone.
Disappeared from my life,
Without saying a word.
Leaving me with memories of the past.
All the things we've shared:
Our "private" talks,
The "mending" of our hearts,
Those "crying" eyes,
But most of all,
Voicing our "fears" together.
I will always remember you my friend,
Because your voice will always be in my mind, forever, as
A Voice of the Past.

Paula Morin

"Voices of the Past"

The voices of the past
Were so different than today
Especially in the words
That people used to say.
At one time pot was a vessel
For cooking things in
And hooked was what
Grandma's rugs would have been.
Fuzz was a substance
Real fluffy like lint
And bread came from the bakery
Not from the mint.
Words are now changing
They're so different from before
With so many new meanings
Leaving a wide and open door.

MY FRIEND OF THE PAST

Many years ago,
I knew the sweetest old man.
He was my best friend,
The very best you can have.

I could talk to him,
For he listened and he cared.
He gave me advice
And said he'd always be there.

But then one sad day,
It was his time to part,
And he spoke these words
That I have held in my heart.

"Be just who you are
Always listen to your heart
Learn to like yourself
For inner peace is an art."

That was years ago
But I still miss that old man.
Sometimes I need help
To figure out who I am.

And when my pride hurts,
And feels as though it's been slashed,
It makes me so glad
To hear that voice of my past.

Voices of the Past

I've traveled with men of adventure and daring
As they've sailed the seas and soared the skies
I've cried with mothers in endless searching
As they've looked into their young ones' hungry eyes

I've trusted in leaders of wisdom and power
As they've lead us through wars and prosperity
I've detested the shades of black and white color
It's robbed the people of their dignity

On all these things this country was shaped
The right to life, happiness, and liberty
From all the worlds, nations they have escaped
To come here to the land of opportunity.

LES VOIX DU PASSÉ

Nous raconte la vie d'hier
On les lit souvent
Ses voix du passé

Les grande musées
Nous raconte une vie changé
On les visite souvent
Ses voix du passé

Les vieilles chansons
Nous explique bien ses leçons
On les écoute souvent
Ses voix du passé

Les anciens portraits
Nous rapelle tout les effets
On les regarde souvent

Nous en trouvent d'autre
On les entend souvent

LES VOIX DU PASSE

Je m'assis un soir
Pour me souvenir des voix du passé
Je pense a mon père, a ma mère mon grand-père et ma grand-mère.

Tout les quatre, vivant dans une même maison
Tout les quatre, chantant la même chanson
Et moi, tout petit, toute seule,
J'écoutais tout ce qu'ils disaient, tout ce qu'ils disaient.

Maintenant, je suis seule, seule dans cette même maison.
Avec la seule mémoire de cette belle famille;
c'est leur voix qui résonne au tour de moi.

J'entends ma mère qui disait
s'est la vie, s'est la vie, s'est la vie.
Et mon père qui chantait
tu grandis, mon amis, mon petit.

Ma grand-mère et mon grand-père,
c'est eux qui chantaient,
les cheveux blanchis et le corps vieillit mais le coeur ne vieillit jamais.

Maintenant je suis seule, sans eux pour aimer, mes je peux entendre leurs voix du passé.

"LES VOIX DU PASSÉ"

Écoute, écoute les voix du passé
Oui, les voix qui te font rêver
Au bon temps que t'as vécu
Au joie qui ne reviendrons plus
Mais qui reste la imprimer
Toute au fond de ton coeur.

Écoute, écoute
Les entend-tu
Les voix du passe
Qui chantent pour toi.

Qui chante quoi, tu me demande
Des memoires pour toi
Qui te font revivre des joies
Des joies que tu oublie quelque fois.

Le jour ou les voix diminuront
La tristesse viendra dominer
Oui, dominer toute tes pensées
Alors, n'oublie pas, écoute
Eh, oui souris
Au bon moment passé
Avec les voix du passé.

The French Club organized two projects this year. One was an exchange student program and the other was a trip to Quebec. The exchange student program took place during the February vacation. Two students from each grade (7-11) lived with students from Poheganook. They attended school with those students. In April, the Quebec students stayed with our students.

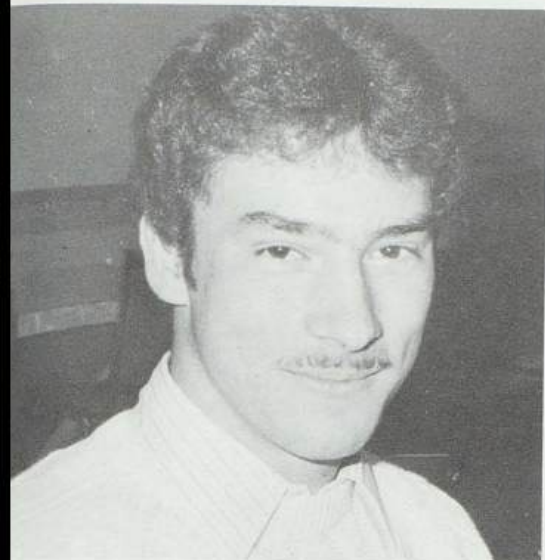

The trip to Quebec took place in April. Twenty-eight students toured Quebec for four days and three nights. The French Club has conducted many fund raising activities. They are: a coat check, a bottle drive, a bake sale and a rock-a-thon. All these activities have been successful. We would like to thank everyone for supporting us.

Wisdom's Peer Educators

What are Peer Educators? That was the question of many at Wisdom until this very valuable group of students began going around this year letting all students know who the Peer Educators are and what they do. To put it simply, Peer Educators are trained listeners. They are not advice givers or problem solvers. They are sensitive listeners. They have committed themselves to be available anytime and anyplace. Everything that these trained listeners hear is always held in the strictest confidence. This year's program has been particularly successful at the Junior High level. Many thanks to this group of dedicated and concerned Wisdom Pioneers.

Wisdom Band

This year, Wisdom High Band members experienced direction from two teachers. Mrs. Louise Roy began the year in our brand new room. Later, Mrs. Sue Olmstead took over the job of bringing our band one step closer to that level of accomplishment which all band members strive for. Beside playing at various home games, the band also presented a Spring Concert. Selections such as "Air for Band," "Evergreen," and "Rock Around the Clock" were performed. This years band President was Edward Latham; Vice Pres. was Jan Thibeault; and Sec./Treas. was Vicki Michaud. The band Librarian was Jessica Clark.

Vocational Education 1985

This year Wisdom High school was very active in the St. John Valley Vocational Cooperative Program. There are some students who attend Wisdom High who all of a sudden aren't in school much anymore or at least it seems that way to students who regularly attend Wisdom. Some students are never in classes at Wisdom. No. This is not a mad move to drop out of school. Students operating in such unconventional ways are very busy attending class somewhere else. These students are participating in the Vocational Education Program. Dennis Bosse, Danny Dumond, Karl Lavoie, Steve Lavoie, Michael Levesque and Paul Michaud tackled Auto Mechanics lessons in Fort Kent. Pioneer Diesel Mechanics such as Tommy Blanchette, Peter Collins, and Dale Roy were also in Fort Kent. Madawaska High Welding classes were attended by Glenn Ouellette while Craig Thibodeau sharpened his skills in the Machine Shop in Grand Isle. And let's not forget all the dedicated Health Occupations students working hard at the hospital in Fort Kent. They were: Patty Beaulieu, Jeanette Butler, Cherie St. Pierre, and Brenda Thibeault. Gail Bosse, Kim Bouchard, Michelle Corriveau, Doug Guerrette and Sherry Theriault were busily scaling the Marketing and Distribution career ladder. Did anyone discover where Sandy Chamberland, Debbrah Beaulieu and Michelle Hebert had disappeared to during the entire year? They were attending classes at the University of Maine at Fort Kent of course. So you see, we are all accounted for at Wisdom. Best of luck to all our vocational education Pioneers.

"A CHILD'S PLEA TO HIS PARENTS"

Give me more than food to nourish me. Give me the warmth and the security of your love. Give me plenty of things to look at, to feel, to smell, to listen to, to taste. And even some things to break.

Teach me to take my turn. Watch me play so you can see how I am trying to work out my problems.

When you tell me to do something, please tell me why I should do it.

Don't transfer your fears to me. I have enough of my own to cope with and I don't need more.

Help me not to act when I am angry. But don't make me so afraid of showing anger that I lose the capacity to feel strongly about anything.

Let me learn to bear pain, to want things but to be strong enough to postpone gratification of certain feelings I am not yet ready to experience.

Give me a little corner in the house that is all mine and nobody else's. I need moments of peace and quiet that cannot be invaded by anyone.

Give me my share of consideration and attention. I must know every day, even if for just a few minutes, that I am the only one you are thinking about and loving. Let me ask any questions that pops into my head. If you don't know the answer, say so. It's good training to hear someone say, "I don't know, but I will try to find out for you."

Be patient with me when I don't do things very well at first. Remember I have so many things to learn and almost every thing takes some practice.

Let me bear the consequence for whatever I do. I need to be punished as well as rewarded. And when you punish me, make sure the punishment fits the crime.

Above all, grant me unconditional love. For if I know it is there, I will be able to give the same to my children and they will be able to give it to theirs.

commencement

Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turn about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.

Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
and you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worse,
That you must not quit.

HONOR ESSAYIST
Sandra Chamberland

The theme was "WE ARE THE WORLD." With the world's focus on Ethiopia's starvation situation it was no wonder that the 1985 Seniors wished to commemorate their graduation to this country's struggle for survival.

Departmental awards were received by Sandra Chamberland (Eng), Gregory Chamberland (Math), Paul M. Morin (Sci), Laura Plourde (Soc. Stu.), Gregory Chamberland (French), Paula Morin (Bus), Michael Michaud (Ind. Arts), Paul Bouchard (Phys. Ed). Presidential Academic Fitness Awards were given to Paul Bouchard, Gregory Chamberland, Sandra Chamberland, Steven Chamberland, Gordon Clark, Dean Daigle, Jay Edgecomb, Michelle Hebert, Keith LaBrie, Brenda Mathieu, Paul M. Morin, Monica Nadeau, and Laura Plourde. Paul M. Morin received an Attendance Award for not having missed one day of school in his four years of high school.

Honor and High Honor Awards were given to Sandra Chamberland, Gregory Chamberland and Paul M. Morin. The Citizenship/Service Award was granted to Gregory Chamberland and the Paul E. Chasse Memorial Award to Paul M. Morin. Numerous other students received money awards from various groups to help them with their college expenses. This was also the first year that Wisdom commencement exercises were filmed on VCR tape as a form of record. This should prove to be interesting viewing at the tenth-year reunion. Good luck to all the Seniors as they embark on a new road through life's journey.

WISDOM JUNIOR HIGH STUDENTS PRESENT TWO ONE-ACT PLAYS: Students at Wisdom Junior High presented two one-act plays on Friday, April 12 at 7 p.m. at the Wisdom High School cafeteria.

"Take A Letter" is a comedy about an arrogant, disorganized writer who is interviewing secretaries. Scott Lavertu starred as the self-centered William Watson. Tammy Martin played Jean Dorsey, Karie Paradis played Sara White, Julie Roy was Violet Bond and Nicole Corriveau was Virginia Morse, all applicants for the secretary position.

Dawn Bouchard played Mary Jones, a book salesperson who almost lands the position. Paula Dumais played Betty Allen, who supplies the play with a surprise ending.

"Requiem For A Small Town," the second one-act play, is about a dying town. Some of the residents hold a mock trial for television star Bobby Joe Davis, the man accused of killing the town of Aaron. Andy Fongemie starred as Bobby Joe. Robin Wisley co-starred as Margie Evans, Bobby Joe's old high school sweetheart.

Dona Saucier and Andy Gendreau teamed up as the insane Pickett Sisters, a pair of senior citizens who took charge of the trial. Leta Fongemie, last year's best actress at Wisdom for her role in "The Patient in 4B," is Naomi Martin, the prosecuting attorney. Kim Michaud played Pauline Caine and Steve Ouellette played Andy Filer, rounding out the jury.

Heather Tincher, Melissa Ling, Kelly Michaud, Karie Michaud and Jenny Michaud served as hostesses and prompters. The public was invited.
