Commencement — The Beginning And The End

A New World Beckoning On

We came from near and far
That first day of school,
Not knowing why we were so shy,
Nor why there were tears - with shaky smiles -
And perhaps secret fears we could not deny.

That day sped swiftly by,
To be followed by weeks
And years, enlarging
Our world from day to day with
Trials and successes along the way,
Until, all too soon
We realized we'd leave
This academic shelter for another.

It's not always easy to understand
How fate thrusts its hand
Into our lives,
But we learned to cope,
And not lose hope;
We learned to lose the game
And cheerfully try again,
Respecting each other's rights
To dissent, and still be friends.

And now, as we gaze
Toward the horizons,
A new world beckoning on,
We thank our friends and teachers,
With this, our heartfelt song.

The Yearbook Staff would like to take this opportunity to express thanks to the many people who have made this yearbook possible.

The publication of this yearbook would not have been possible if it weren't for understanding teachers who were lenient and thoughtful enough to excuse students to sell ads for the yearbook and for the many interruptions when pictures were being taken.

We wish to acknowledge Mr. John E. Norton, photographer, of the Department of Economic Development, Augusta, for the transparency which made possible our End Sheets.

All in all, the completion of the yearbook was the result of the joint effort of the faculty, students, and the Yearbook Staff Members.
