

THE PIONEER

In Memoriam

1974 - 1976 Dr. Levesque Elementary School

1976 - 2007 Wisdom Middle/High School

Louise Cyr

"... 33 years of outstanding dedication... always professional... brought, pride, stability, and joy to our schools... impeccable reputation ... exceptional mentor and role model... set high expectations... motivated students to realize their full potential... epitome of every positive character trait... etched in the minds of many are her unending labors of love... touched and enriched lives forever. Louise made our schools and the world a much more beautiful place."

- MSAD #33 School Board,
Dr. Fern Desjardins, Supt. of Schools

"We must remember that the student is a whole person who has an emotional and social life, not just an intellectual one."

~ Louise Cyr

"Loving and much loved"
~ Jean Baker White

"...working with Louise was an absolute delight. Her ... sense of humor, caring for students, pushing them to excel, knew no boundaries"
~ Jerry White ~ Supt. 1990-2001

"... made learning fun! ... the sound of students laughing and Louise's giggling drifting from her classroom into mine."
~ Nancy Troeger

"... good teacher: engaging, fair, understanding, caring, compassionate, empathetic, humorous, insightful, humble, patient, respectful, positive, warm, and effective."

~ Charles Y. Collin ~ Class of 1982
Student Teacher (2005)

"...very kind, trustworthy friend and colleague"
~ Linda Bouchard

"We are better teachers for having known her."
~ Curt & Sylvia Dow-Harvey

"Mrs. Cyr's passion for learning, her amazing leadership and work ethic, and her positive outlook on life have influenced her students far beyond the classroom."

~ Justin Michaud ~ Class of 2006

Passionate, effective educator with a genuine love and unique compassion for all students.

Some of us have been together since Pre-K. In between, there are some who left and some that joined our class. We've had silly little class arguments, but when it comes to having fun, we are the experts at doing so. No matter what the situation, there is always a way to bring our class back together.

We are the Class of Two Thousand Thirteen.

Dedicated to...

MRS. DENISE THIBEAULT

All smiles on the day she became Mrs. Thibault.

Mrs. Thibault was brought up in Madawaska. She graduated from Madawaska High School in 1991. At that time Mrs. Thibault's dreams took her outside The Valley. Her college journey began at Johnson and Wales University, where she recieved a degree in Business. Christopher Newport University in Virginia, was the next stop, at which she earned a degree in English. After spending some time growing her family, Mrs. Thibault attended the University of Maine at Fort Kent to get her teaching certification.

Mrs. Thibault's first teaching job was at Fort Kent Community High School. After taking a break to focus on family, Mrs. Thibault began teaching at Wisdom, in 2007. She is currently the sophomore and senior English teacher as well as a teacher in the Resource Room. As if that weren't enough, she has also been the advisor for the class of 2013 for the past two years . We, the class of 2013 would personally like to thank Mrs. Thibault for all her time and dedication contributed to this school!

The Sirois girls all back together!

Goal: To live a happy, peaceful life.

The beginning of this long journey started with fun and games. As 4-year-olds, going to school to play with a McDonald's play set and hatch chickens seemed to be the greatest thing. Kindergarten ended with our entire class dressed up for graduation. We introduced ourselves, told the audience what we wanted to be when we grew up, and sang songs that made the audience chuckle.

Once our first graduation was all said and done our class was split up. The "rivalry" between MAC and the Traditional classes had begun. Elementary years were full of field trips. We traveled to The Botanical Gardens, Gaughn's Berry Farm, the Acadian Village, and many, many more. Robbie's annual pool parties and Angie's sledding parties were something we looked forward to. In 6th grade, in preparation for middle school, we were reunited. We became known as the class that every teacher wanted, leaving each of them with our own special memories. We left Mrs. Levesque with our first publication, a book on "The History of the Yellow Buses".

Our arrival at Wisdom brought big changes. We began to find ourselves, creating groups of friends, and trying new things. For the most part middle school was a breeze and it ended one June day, with a trip to Gentile Hall, our second graduation, and a dance.

In August, high school began and classes were definitely harder. We discovered there was more to high school than competition and drama. During Winter Wellness, we cheered for the underclassmen while riding unicycles and waving homemade flags. We worried more about having fun than winning. During Senior year, college interviews and scholarship applications turned into priorities and now we realize our time in this school system and with the friends, we've had for 13 years, is almost over.

Our journey together...
began on August 19, 1999..

"Don't quit school. You'll come back."
-Troy

"Respect the plaid, do not abuse the plaid, and be the plaid."

-Andrew

"Remind Ms. Daigle how beautiful she is."

-Claudia

"Nothing is impossible if you set your mind to it."
-Shaina

"Don't 'unorganize' Mr. Rioux's desk, he hates it."

-Melanie

Advice

Remember when...

"...we made hilarious French videos in Miss Cote's class."

"...Morgan was chased by a goose at the Acadian Village."

"...the boys would get their makeup done by the girls."

... and ends on June 08, 2013.

Senior

In every class, there are always the ones who are loud and energetic, quiet ones, the troublemakers, athletes, those who speak their mind, and the brains. THE CLASS OF 2013 has learned to accept everyone's differences and have grown to appreciate each other for whom they have become.

~2013~

Remember when?
Beanie Babies and Hot Wheels

dominated the toy market? Drama meant fighting over the last good marker.
Everyone wanted to be a cowboy,
a firefighter, or a pop star.
We had no cares and no worries... We were invincible.
Nothing could stop us from crossing the street or jumping off
the monkey bars.

We always pushed the envelope and our parents supported us the whole way. They organized play dates and made the best snacks ever. Soccer, basketball, or baseball games always ended with trips to Tastes-Freezes or Lakeview.

Remember?

trays snowball fights playing superpowers
joy innocence smiles Rugrats curiosity Slip Legos slumber parties Bratz playdates n'Slide love swings lunch boxes Barbies bus rides hide n' go 14 playfulness acceptance invincible seek

smiles toys joy curiosity love

superpowers
bus rides

Then everything changed. Elementary school gave way to middle school. In no time at all we were in high school. Beanie Babies led to iPods, cell phones, and computers. Childhood play dates turned into real dates, and hanging out with friends. The reality of a driver's license created a new sense of freedom and with it a world of responsibilities. We had to balance school, work, extracurriculars, and actually having a social life. We still fought over the last good marker, but then things like who to ask to prom or where to sit at lunch dominated our conversations. Growing up may not have been easy, but it was necessary... it was time.

From taking orders to giving orders, fixing big rig trucks and fixing meals. The jobs of the Seniors of 2013 are as diverse as they are as individuals. Even though we live in a rural area, these hard workers have managed to find jobs they enjoy. Judging by how hard they work, their futures are definitely bright.

Work

Working at a young age has helped us develop the skill of balancing work, school, and other activities. We've earned our own money and learned the value of a dollar and responsible spending. Being able to deal with customers and build relationships with our co-workers is a life skill that is best learned young.

We asked a few students about how their Sophomore year is going, and they gave us some answers!

This is the year to have fun and make memories. I'll worry about college next year!

-Courtney Ouellette, February

You have more responsibilities, and you need to worry about procrastination more.

-Kurt Blanchette, November

There's more homework, but it's not harder.

-Travis Guerrette, September

The Freshmen are busy finding classes and places to sit at lunch. The Juniors are busy with homework, and trying to get better grades so they can go to college. The Seniors are busy keeping their grades up and waiting for college acceptance letters.

Now, Sophomore year is generally a year where you can relax a little, and have time for making memories.

Cook-off

In the cook-off the students had a table of different ingredients to choose from. The only rule was that each team had to add bacon in their entree and dessert. Each team was made up of two grade levels. Teamwork was the key!

Snow Ball

Everybody gathers around, in the middle of a song, to take a group picture.

Evan in the middle of the dance floor, doing his own thing.

What's new?...Vanessa acting crazy!

You know the party is started when everyone is on the dance floor!

Inside the Classroom

In the classroom it's not always about writing essays and taking notes. Sometimes we get to loosen up and be creative with projects and experiments.

"Education is not always learned best at the desk. What it is what it is." - Mr. Textor
"I do projects because it inspires creativity and lets the students learn their own way." - Mr. Rioux

no boundaries

outside of school

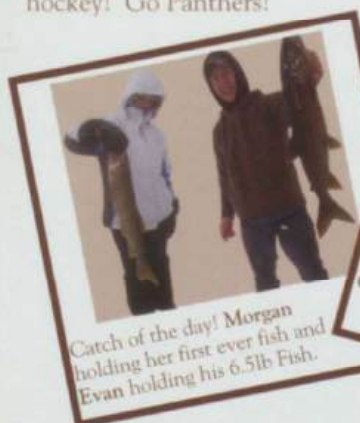

From the backroads of the "Gash" to the "Alleys" of Edmundston... De-stressing is done in various ways, from archery, to bowling, karate to snowmobiling. Being outside is usually a priority for Pioneer students. Snowmobile helmets, dirt bike boots, fluorescent orange, plaid and camouflage are often seen in the halls and on top of lockers. These students are hard working; beginning the school year by taking two weeks to harvest local potatoes and balancing outside jobs, school responsibilities, clubs and sports. For some students it's their sketch pad, others it is taking the four-wheeler for a spin. Wisdom students definitely know how to unwind.

Annie, Olivia, Sadie, and Alyssa dedicate themselves to the Cyrious Movement Dance Studio's competition team. These girls compete at the Turn It Up Dance Challenge in March along with their 29 other teammates. The four girls performed 2 dances together, "Monsters" and "Evolution", both received platinum awards, national invitations, and special judges awards. "Monsters" was also voted most entertaining.

~Just Dance~

1. Chance and his dad showing off their early morning tag.
2. For many students, Friday and Saturday nights consist of, black lights, dance music, fashionably questionable shoes, and knocking down pins. Here, Daniel and Vanesa enjoy a game of "Fast Bowl."
3. Cole on his way to school, one sunny morning.
4. Nathan has Mrs. Jandreau to blame for his weekend addiction... real life Canadian hockey! Go Panthers!

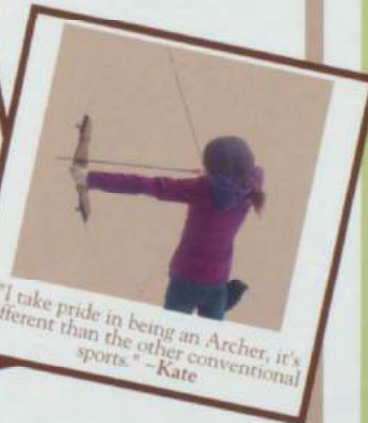

Catch of the day! Morgan holding her first ever fish and Evan holding his 6.5lb Fish.

During the summer of 2012, Annie, Alyssa, Emily, Courtney, Kate, and Cassidy were staff at Aroostook Teen Leadership camp.

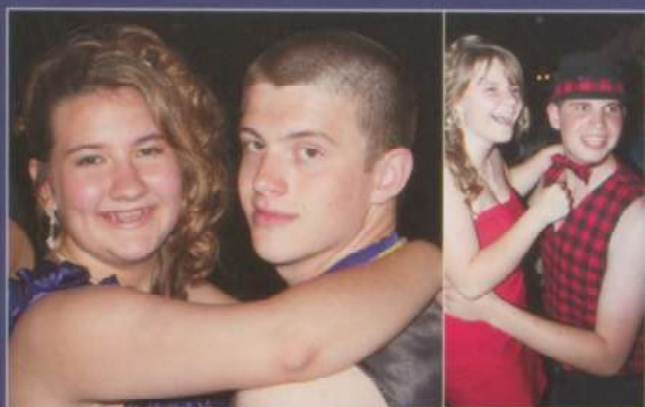

"Karate teaches me discipline. Plus, it's a fun way to exercise." -Evan

"I take pride in being an Archer, it's different than the other conventional sports." -Kate

Taylor Hobbs transferred to Wisdom her sophomore year and just couldn't give up her love of skiing. Taylor's re-introduction of skiing brought Sarah Paradis (Class of 2012) along. Her 2012-2013 season consisted of 10 top 10 finishes. At the State meet, Taylor qualified for Regionals by placing 8th in the girls slalom race.

"We weren't sure if he'd be able to cut it, but Richard ended up proving us wrong. Just the willingness to learn everything about the game got him to be where he was at the end of the season. He was a candidate for Mustangs MVP Def. Player. I see Richard to be even better this upcoming season" - Mark Daigle, defensive coach

Richard Cyr is one of the two nose tackles on the teams roster. He's played for the Mustangs for two years now, and plans on continuing until his senior year, becoming one of the few seniors on the team.

The Valley Mustangs is a football team that recruits students from all over the St. John Valley and Canada. Practices began in early June and continued into the fall for their first game.

They won their first game, and every game after that. With their 9-0 winning streak, they went on to win the 2012 GNEYFL Championship.

During soccer playoffs, all the students signed a banner for the boys.

WISDOM VS. SOUTHERN AROOSTOOK

The Wisdom Pioneer boys had another successful season, bringing the team to playoffs. With such a young team, new coach, and having lost two senior captains, the boys surprised everyone with this amazing post-season qualification. The entire school, and what seemed like the whole town was there to support the Pioneers. The girls soccer team painted shirts and made posters, students painted their faces, bodies, and Wisdom even hosted a pep rally. Sadly, the game ended in a 2-1 double overtime loss. Brandon Barriere, a Sophomore, scored the lone goal for the Pioneers. The game winner for Southern Aroostook was a diving header into the goal post. The Southern Aroostooks' fans joy quickly turned to worry upon realizing the severity of their player's injury.

The team has high hopes for the 2013-2014 season.
