That is how Webster's New International Dictionary describes Seniors; brief and to the point. But lets take a closer look at that complex slice of humanity commonly known as "SENIORS."

Add "VARIETY" to the definition because Seniors come in all shapes and sizes, looks and moods.

They can be SERIOUS ...

... or they can be PLAYFUL .

Seniors can be found ...

... THINKING while WORKING ...

... and they can be found WORKING at THINKING

"It was hard this year, a rough season. Before the harvest things were going well, but after it we seemed to be playing below our potential. We made the semi-finals, but Penobscot Valley was too tough for us, they went on to be the state champs. We're only losing 3 seniors, so I'm very optimistic about next year."

BOYS SOCCER

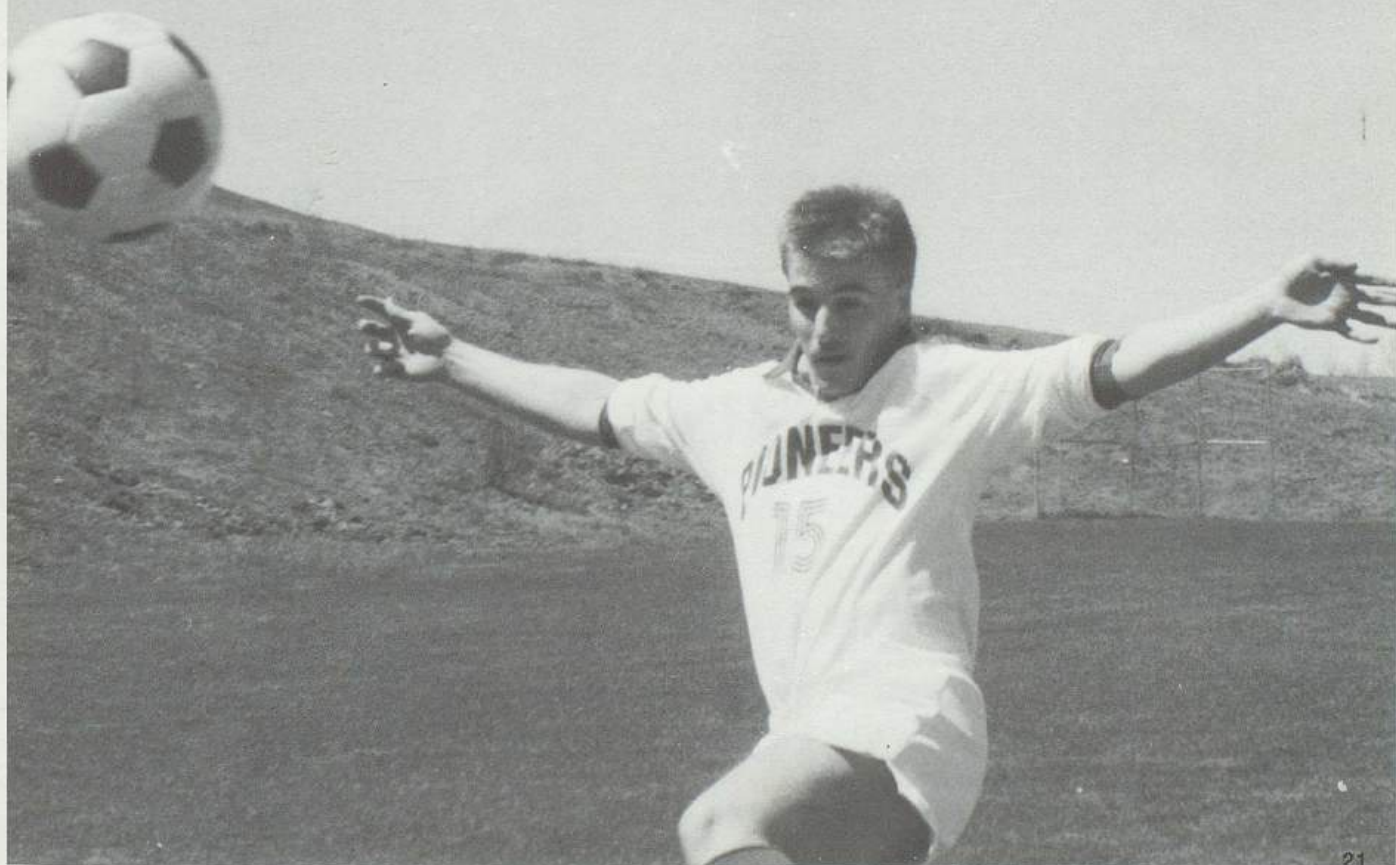

This wasn't one of our best seasons. It started off well, but then went downhill. We did have some good games, especially the one against Fort Fairfield. They were in first place but we shut them out 3-0! We'll only be missing four seniors next season so next year we could do very well.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

KAREN HEBERT SCORES 1000 PTS.

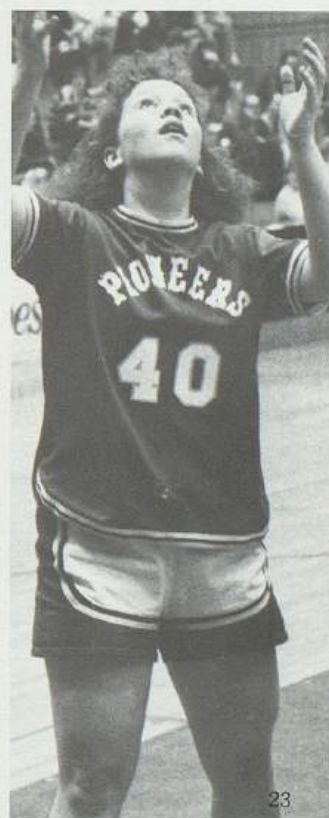

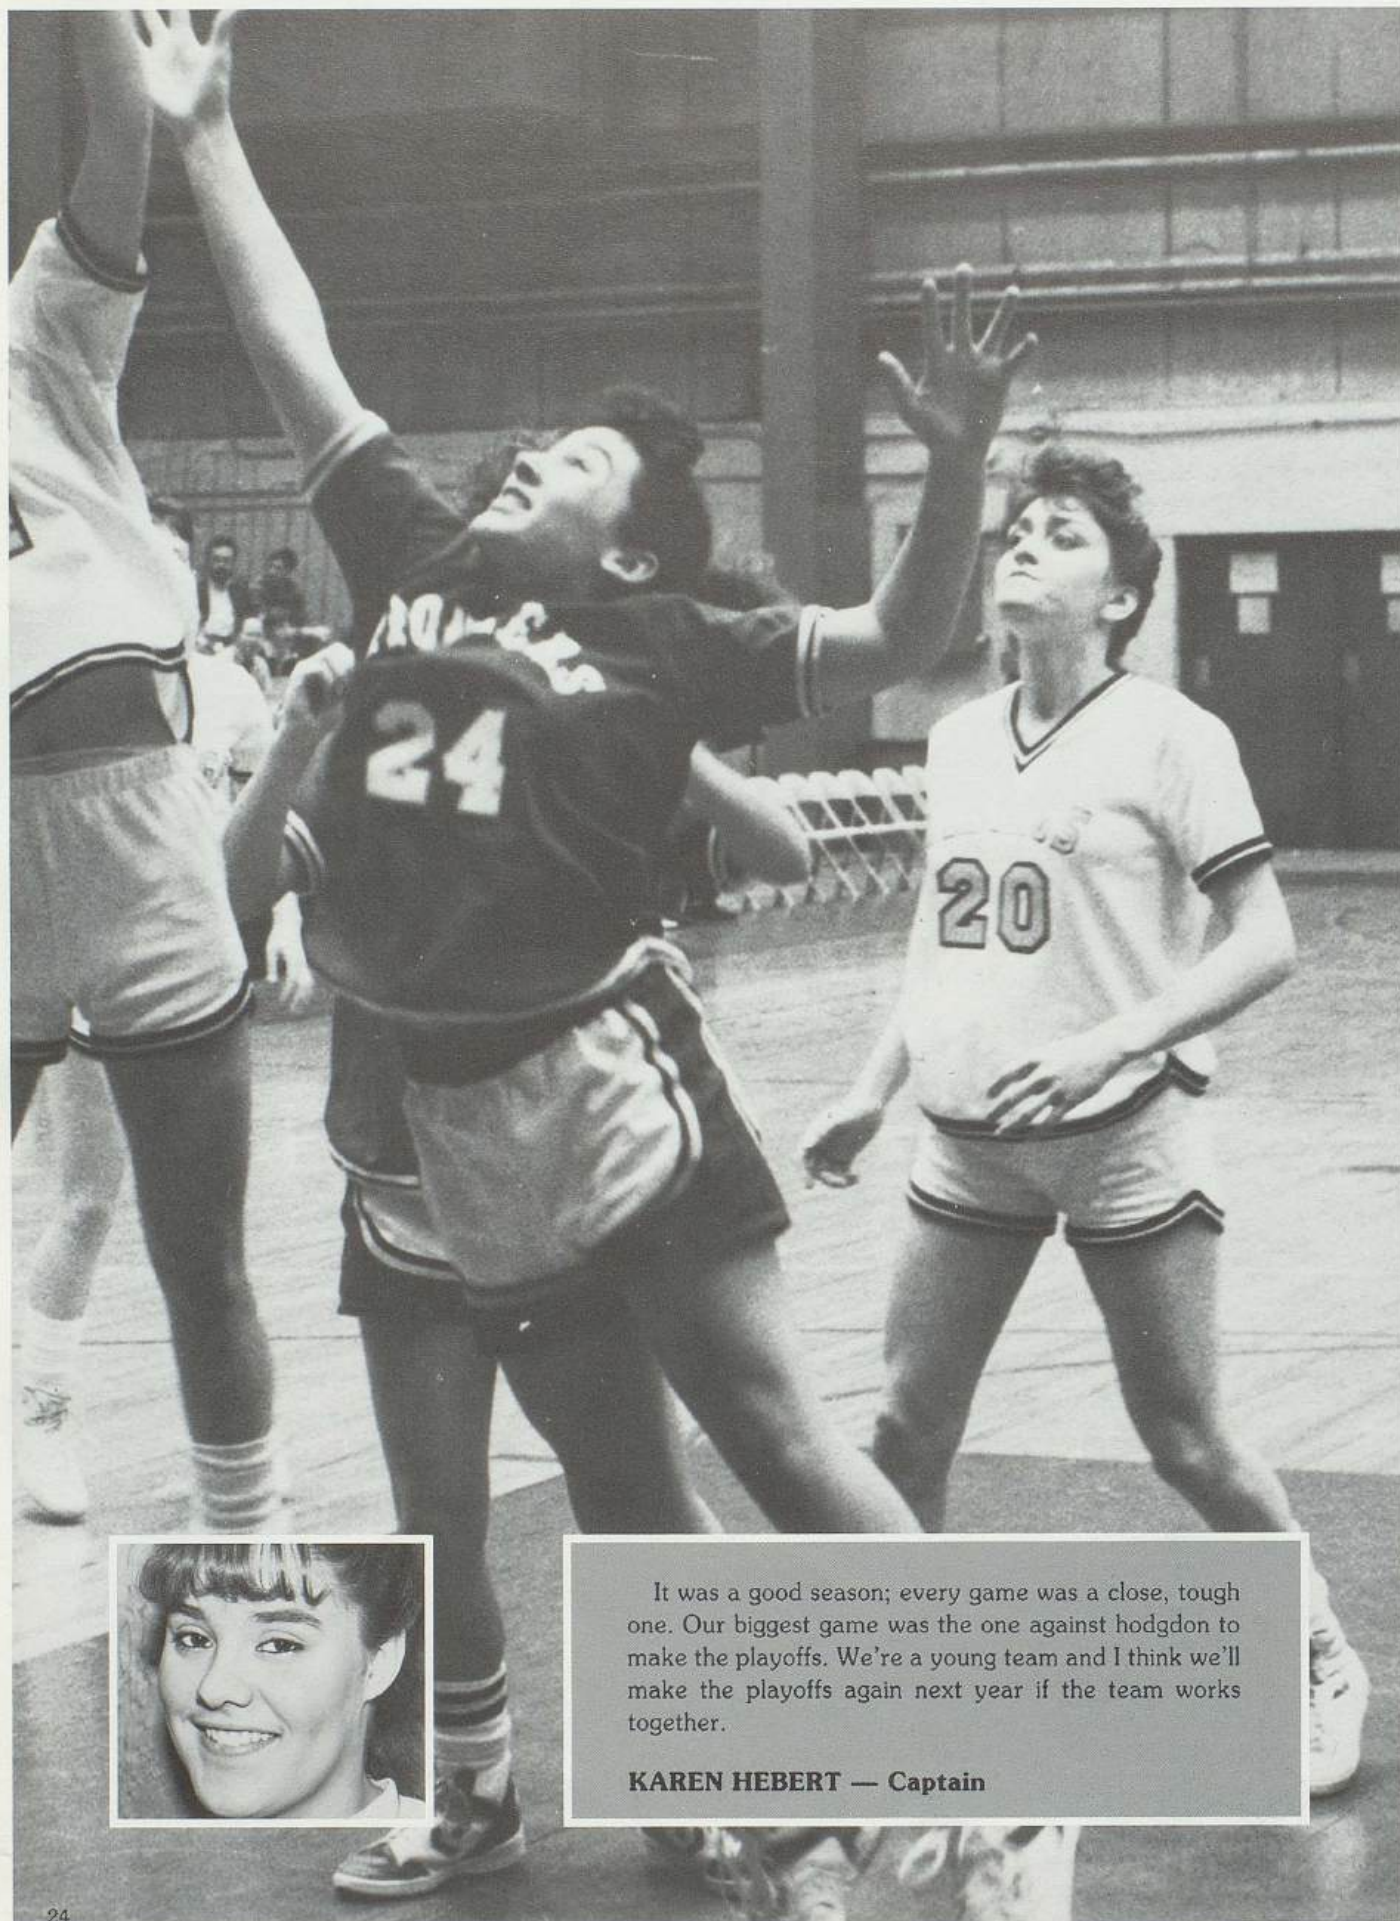

After making the All-State Soccer Team last fall Karen continued to add accomplishments as a senior. She again made all-state, was the Pioneer representative at the All-Star East-West basketball game in Augusta and scored over 1000 points in her high school career.

WISDOM WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP!

We had a lot of fun. We worked real hard. As a result, Wisdom got the Championship again. That makes 12 out of the last 13 years. It was such a feeling of pride when we got the trophy! It was also quite a feeling walking into the tournament gym knowing people were watching US play; we were the team to beat.

"It was a frustrating year because we were expected to do better after last years undefeated season. We'll have to strengthen the hitting and defense for next year. We had a lot of first year players this year, but I think with practice next year we'll do better. I think missing the spring training session in April hurt us a bit, but next year we'll be going and that will help us a lot."

ATHLETIC AWARDS

Wisdom High School annually holds a ceremony to recognize excellence in athletics. This year's roster of standouts was headed by Karen Hebert and Craig Ayotte, Wisdom's athletes of the year. All of the winners certainly deserved recognition for their dedication, the hours of practice, and that extra skill and effort that won them their honors.

THE BELLE OF AMHERST

The Belle of Amherst is a rather uncommon form of biography — the dramatized biography. It is also a different kind of drama — the one-person play. On Broadway the lead role went to actress Julie Harris, but here at Wisdom High it was our own Cleo Ouellette playing the part of the seclusive poet Emily Dickinson. With the stage adjusted to look like a Victorian living room, Mrs. Ouellette used the audience and invisible co-actors to conversationally bring Dickinson to life. Dressed all in white, an eccentricity of Dickinson's, Mrs. Ouellette dramatically delivered dialogue and poetry. And it would appear from the applause that the audience "Judged tenderly — of her."

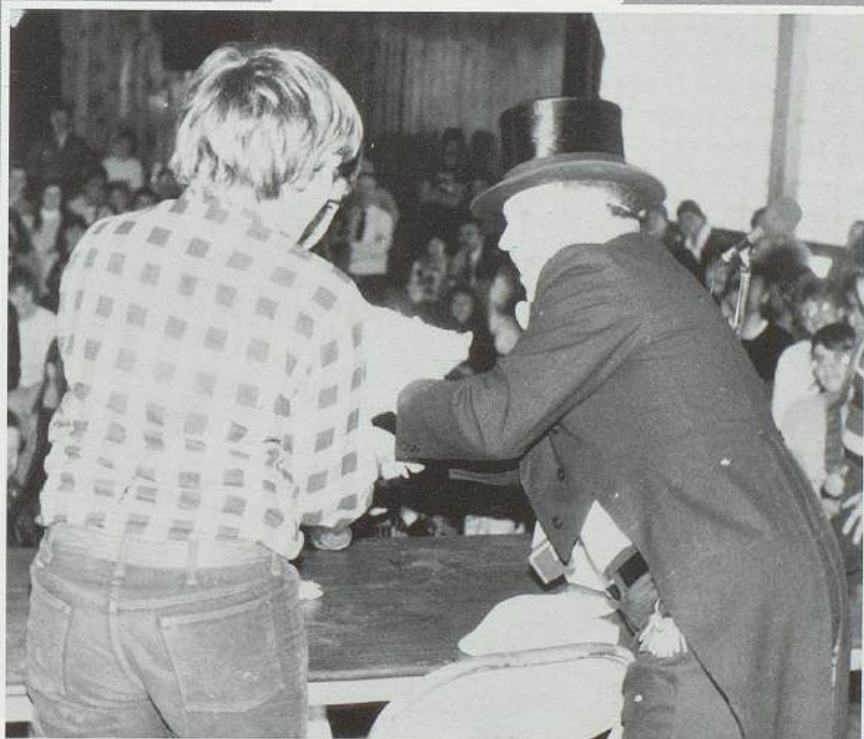

ABOVE AND BEYOND

A pair of activities on the part of our principal, Mr. Bouchard, brought a dimension to the job that puts it into the realm of service "above and beyond" the normal line of duty. The first was the result of a unique fundraiser by the sophomore class. Students were allowed to vote for which faculty or administration member they wanted to "kiss the pig" by depositing money into cans representing each contestant. Mrs. Andy Labbe and Mr. Curtis Talbot won the right to show affection to the reluctant pig, but in the spirit of sportsmanship, close runner up Mr. Bouchard donned top hat and tuxedo for an amorous moment with the squealing piglet.

Later in the year Mr. Bouchard again showed his gameness and flexibility by switching roles with a student, Kevin Ruest. Looking every bit the part Mr. Bouchard headed out in plaid shirt and cap for a day of tree harvesting. By exhibiting such a willing spirit and good humor, Mr. Bouchard surely went beyond the normal duties of his job and helped to set an upbeat tone for the school he leads.

Cindy Albert was selected to receive the 1988 Principal's Award. The award, sponsored by the Maine Secondary Schools Principal's Association, is given in recognition of a high school senior's academic achievement and citizenship. Her award was presented at an Honor's Luncheon on April 9, at the Bangor Civic Center; and represented at the Honors Program by Mr. Paul Bouchard. Cindy was also represented with a plaque she received for the "Youth Merit Award," sponsored by the Madawaska Rotary Club. This award was given on the basis of her school and community; service, dependability and leadership. The actual presentation of this award was on April 27, at an Honors Banquet in Madawaska.

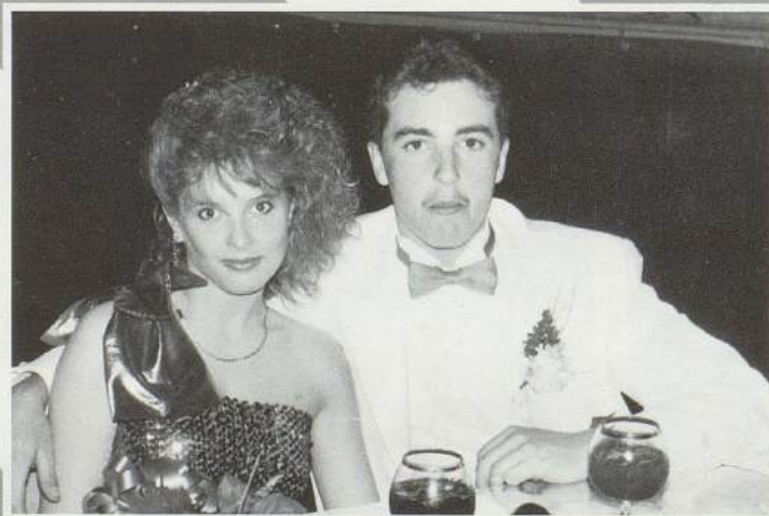

The setting was almost from a fairy tale. Down a tree lined path, across a drawbridge spanning a crystal blue moat that flowed and sparkled, through the gates of a huge stone castle with lofty spires the couples came, stepping finally into the inner ballroom hung with heraldic banners and illuminated by light rendered jewelike as it passed through stained glass.

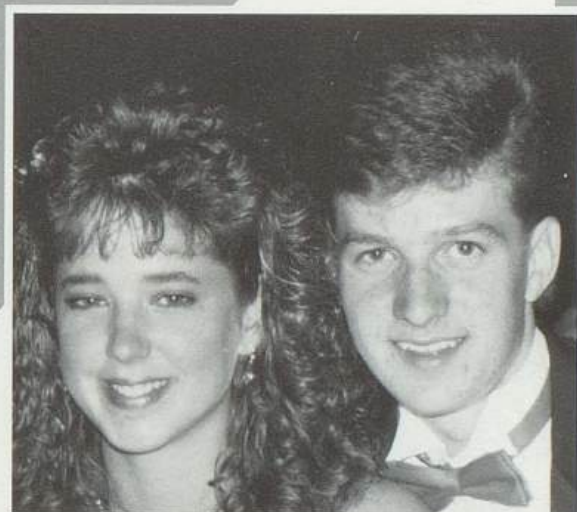

But more dazzling than the surroundings were the dancers at this ball, seemingly enchanted by a flickering aura, an elusive blend of youth and adulthood. Shimmering gowns, stately tuxedos, spontaneous smiles, pulsing music hypnotically bringing the dancers to their feet and into motion. It was magic, truly a night to remember.

JUNIOR HIGH DRAMA CLUB

THE STORM

The Jr. High Drama Club staged two performances of a pair of one act plays this year. The young actors and actresses were really challenged by the contrasting moody drama of The Storm and the fast paced comedy of Oh Baby. The Storm starred Ronnie Guerrette, Tammy Pelletier, Roy Dumond, Kelly Thibeault and Kelly Paradis and "Oh Baby" featured Ronnie Guerrette, Randy Ayotte, Tracy Michaud, Amy Cyr, and Jennifer Thibeault. Both showings were well received and the Wisdom Drama Club expects to be seeing a lot more of these young peoples talents.

This was a busy, productive, growth filled year for Wisdom's Drama Club with four one act plays, a three act play, and an entry in the state one-act play contest held in Limestone March 11th. Membership in the club ran as high as 25 most of the year. The one act plays were presented as An Evening of Theater February 24th to a packed auditorium. The crowd got to see a wide range of styles, talents, and settings as each play unfolded. First Childhood with its juvenile view of the adult world and its dreamy bus ride through imagination; then When God Comes To Breakfast an unconventional look at theology complete with a female deity, an exploding toaster, and an endearing couple named Harry and Beatrice. Requiem For A Small Town, a biting, cynical look at small town values struggling to survive in a changing world, offered some great ensemble acting by a large cast with unforgettable comic relief coming in the form of two old ladies named Millie and Mollie. This was the school's entry at Limestone and Sandy Sirois was selected to the all festival cast for her role as Millie. Lastly, Good-bye To The Clown dramatically showed how one child learned to accept the loss of a parent. When the "imaginary" clown said good-bye to Peggy the hushed crowd responded heartily to the close of an evenings top notch entertainment. But it was back to work for the players as casting and preparation for the Spring play The Groom Said No! began. The years final play, performed May 8th, was a full three acts of comedy. Set in the late 1940's and accompanied by swing era tunes, it told the story of Steve Cameron's return from the military and the ensuing battle between the girl he left behind and the Navy nurse he loves. The supporting cast of a domineering mother, a muddled but wise father, some feisty sisters and nosy neighbors filled out a standout cast that left the audience occasionally roaring with laughter.

It was indeed a fitting climax to a season of fine Pioneer Drama.

ART CLASS

This was a busy, productive year for the art students at W.H.S. One of the highlights was the Egyptian display. Mr. Clapp and his devoted band of artist set up an impressive array of murals, sculptures, and a realistic tomb complete with hieroglyphic curses and a mummy.
