SOME PEOPLE SEE THINGS AS I DREAM THINGS THAT NEVER

People see things as they are and ask

Why?

I dream things that never were as

South in Guatemala '21

THEY ARE AND ASK WHY?
WERE AND ASK WHY NOT?

WHY NOT?

Tom is the land,
and creeping change, like wafting winds,
is everywhere

And those who see,

like those who look and see not,

are as the land,

tom.

The dream that was, is.

And not the smooth phrase,

spawned in silence, slick, oily;

Nor the quick, objective bullet;

Nor yet our own quaking, fragile

can more than slow

the great, exultant swell

of human right.

The land is torn; we see things

as they are.

But 'neath the seeming

the why not of the dream awaits and things that never were await beside.

Await the breath.

THE MAESTRO

THE T-GROUP AS AN APPROACH TO LEARNING

The T-Group is an experience in social creativity - the creation of a miniature society under unusual conditions. Trainers and participants struggle to formulate individual and group value systems. With the growth of trust, individual awareness of self, and non-judgemental acceptance the pattern of FABRIC begins to emerge.

PILOT PROJECTS

The heart of an experimental program consists of the pilot activities which make up the raw data for evaluation and model building for later incorporation as part of the curriculum structure. Team teaching, non-graded individualized instruction, language skill acquisition through typing, French/English, Social Sciences, cross-age tutoring, VTR and micro-teaching techniques, Junior/Senior interns, multi-media approaches and open classroom situations provide a continuous flow of data concerning the process of education. Analysis and evaluation of this rich source of information resulted in an operational curriculum enrichment which attempts to satisfy the perceptual and motivational systems of the variety of individuals of which our schools consists.

OBSERVATION PRECEDES PARTICIPATION

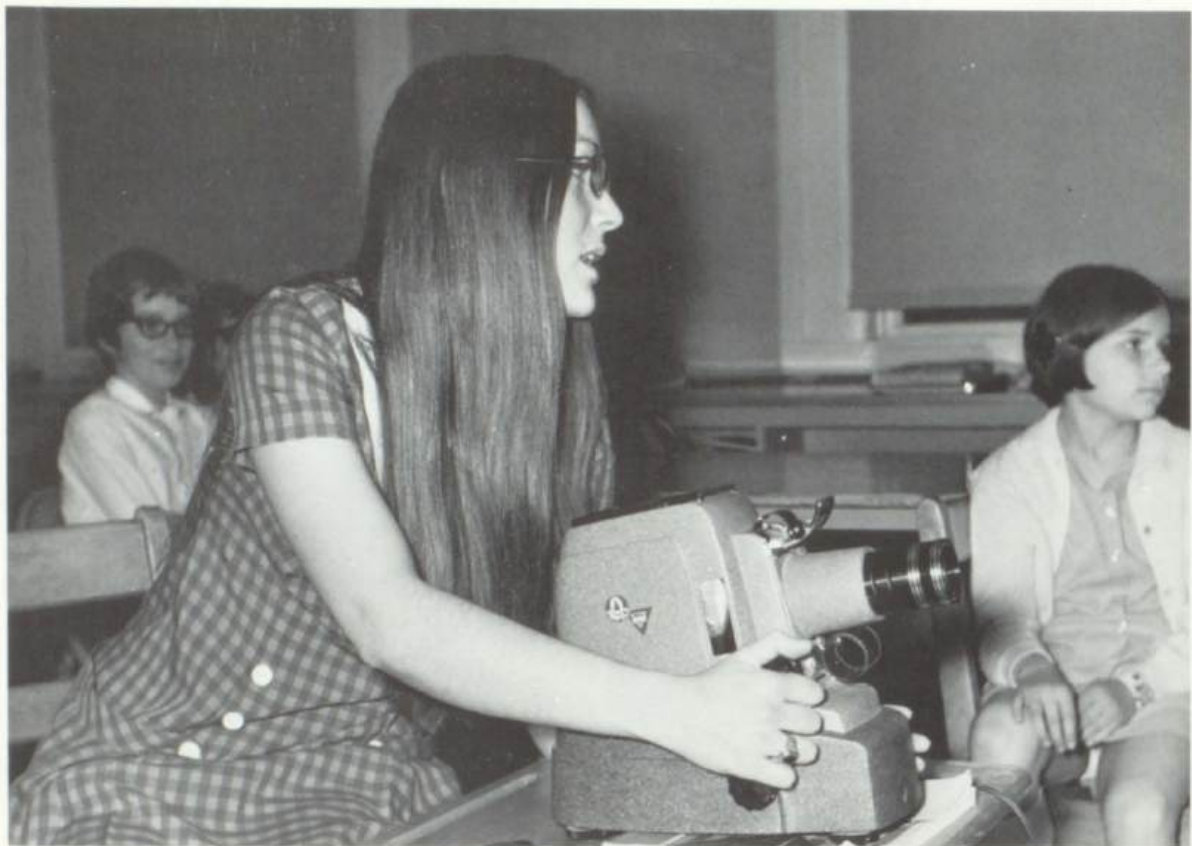

COME ON PEOPLE NOW ... EVERYBODY GET TOGETHER!

FUTURE TEACHERS EXPERIENCE THE LEARNING PROCESS IN S. A. D. 33'S GRADE SCHOOL.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS EMPLOY AUDIO-VISUAL MATERIAL TO STIMULATE LEARNING.

RELAXED, TO SPONTANEOUS ATMOSPHERE FOSTERS LEARNING.

DRACULA EXTRACTING A LITTLE BLOOD.

FIELD TRIPS AND DEMONSTRATIONS

An essential part of education takes place outside the classroom. The variety of rich historical sites in the near vicinity of Wisdom High School provide a valuable resource and a worthwhile adjunct to the regular curriculum. The Acadian heritage of Wisdom students is brought to the fore by visiting historical sites in the St. John Valley and neighboring Canada. Learning by doing is emphasized by the diversified experiments and demonstration in which the students are involved.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT

The felt need for both order and change brings to the fore new problems of interpersonal relationships and philosophy of learning. Staff workshops and institutes provide data and cognitive inputs to satisfy the learning needs and priorities of the staff and students.

EVALUATION

Evaluation, in the final analysis, is decision making to institute program changes. In essence, the Evaluation Team looks at the stated objectives of the group and asks, "Have you done what you said you were going to do?"

At regular intervals the team meets with the staff to review goals and re-categorize priorities in response to emerging needs.
