THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE BUTLER COUNTY FAIR!

Message from Brooklyn Wix, 2023 Queen

To all my rowdy Butler County folks,
(Yes, I'm talking to all of you, Butler County...)

Like most children, younger me was a big fan of summertime. School is out, the corn is planted and growing, spring-born babies are exploring green pastures, and most importantly: it's fair time! All of these things make my beloved Butler County what it is: home.

To outsiders, our little towns are sleepy. We don't have a movie theater or an array of restaurants to choose from. We aren't constantly being bombarded with the media promoting different things to do or places to see. Life in our small towns is a little slower, a little more "old-fashioned", if you will. And while some people who grow up here are more than eager to leave, I myself can't fathom the thought of never returning to a place just like this. Sure, we don't have a fancy gym with all the latest equipment, or a Walmart within a twenty-mile radius. Heck, we don't even have a stop light in our whole county! But what we do have greatly surpasses it all. Here, we have a sense of true community. A community that values hard work, and takes pride in helping and caring for one another. A place where faith is evident, and can be seen throughout all areas of life. A place where everything else matters so little compared to our neighbors, and a place where everyone you meet is a friend.

After being crowned Miss Butler County, I've thought a lot about my wishes for my community, my state, and my world. I've thought a lot about how I can do my part in making a difference. While I have many ideas, I've come to the conclusion that my greatest wish would be for every American to have the chance to spend a week in our beloved Iowa. I wish they could tag along for a pancake breakfast at the local Fire Station, where everyone knows everyone. I wish they could ride with the farmer as he harvests his beans, and listen to the stories of how faith carried his family through year after year. I wish they could sit down at the dinner table and share a meal with a family similar to mine, where love and laughter, and prayers are shared.

A clear representation of the picture I'm trying to paint for you is shown as you walk the grounds of the county fairs. As a little girl and now as a young adult, there is nothing better than the rickety carnival rides and greasy fair food; the many grandstand events or a walk through the livestock buildings.

Now, as the Butler County Fair Queen, it has been nonetheless an honor to represent and show my pride for our county and fair.

From attending ALL the livestock shows, to all the grandstand events, and everything in between, loads of fun and memories took place! I even learned a bunch too! Although it was rainy at times, we made the most of the situation and still had tons of fun! That's what Butler County is all about! Plus, is it even the Butler County Fair if it doesn't rain?!?!?

My duties continued when it was time for State Fair! My time at the Iowa State Fair Queen Contest was also a total blast!! Going into this week, my mindset was to make lots of friendships, and totally soak in this whole experience. From the workshops, to interviews, to runway practices & introductions, and time spent at the fairgrounds, I did just that! It was extra special seeing the fair board members there to support me as well!

Most importantly, I got to meet lots of girls that share a common interest with me: the love for their county and their people. Nothing was more fun than getting the honor to represent such an awesome county! So proud to represent our sweet Butler County!

Although the outcome wasn't what we hoped for, I learned something that was much bigger than the contest itself. After coming together with all these girls, I learned that Butler County isn't the only place where a sense of community and compassion is shown. It's an all-around Iowan thing. Now, I fully understand that the saying stands true..."To know an Iowan, is to love an Iowan."

Overall, my experience as this year's fair queen so far has been a dream of mine turned into a reality. I'd like to thank everyone who played a part in putting on the Butler County Fair, and making this my most favorite year yet. The volunteers, fair goers, my family & friends, and of course the fair board! You all are the reason people look forward to partaking in the fair each year!

I'd also like to take time and recognize the hard work being poured into making our fairgrounds more exciting and attractive. Specifically, the new building being put up now! Big thanks to everyone who has donated! We continuously need people pouring into our communities, our fairgrounds, and most importantly our youth!

My love for Butler County and its people, will forever run deep.
