Our annual Youth of the Year competition celebrates outstanding teen leaders from Boys & Girls Clubs of Marshall County who demonstrate leadership, service, and academic success.

"Without the Boys & Girls Clubs, I would not be the outgoing person I am today." -Emma (winner)

One mission. One community.
A whole lot of support.

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Marshall County recently celebrated an inspiring group of teens during our annual Youth of the Year (YOY) Competition, the highest honor a Club member can receive through Boys & Girls Clubs. Youth of the Year recognizes outstanding young people for their leadership, service, academic success, and dedication to their Club and community.

This year's candidates impressed everyone with their professionalism, courage, and growth throughout the process. Staff had the privilege of watching these teens find their voices, step outside their comfort zones, and encourage one another every step of the way. Their support for each other was a powerful reminder of the character and leadership being developed through the Club experience.

We are incredibly proud of all of our Youth of the Year candidates and the leadership they demonstrated. Congratulations to our winner, Emma, who will continue her leadership journey by advancing to the state Youth of the Year competition in Indianapolis next month.

The future is bright, and we cannot wait to see where these young leaders go next. ❤️
