Classes and Clubs

Quilt Class

Percy The Penguin

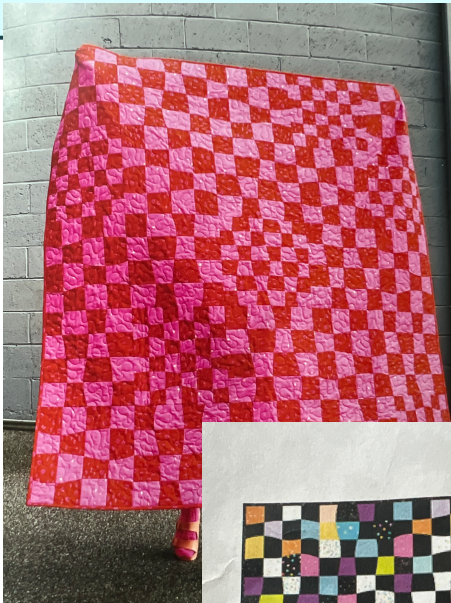

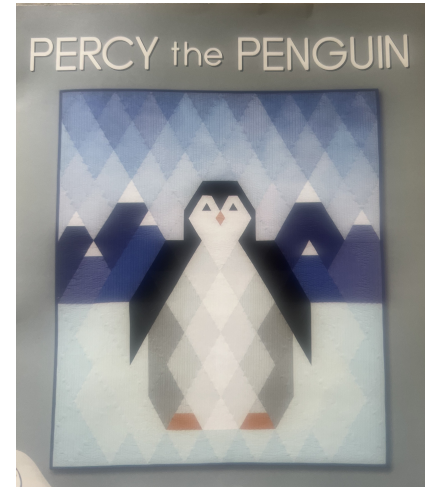

Wednesdays: April 29 and May 13, 5p - 8p

Instructor: Joanne

This adorable little penguin quilt is so sweet! Little ones in your life will certainly enjoy this. (Even the "not so little ones" in your life will enjoy this as well!)

Join Joanne for two Wednesday evenings to make this sweet quilt. Supply list provided at sign up.

Class: $35

Intermediate Class

Omega Quilt

Wednesday: May 20, 5p - 8p (first class. Second class will be decided during first class meeting.)

Instructor: Joanne

Omega is a wavy, improv-inspired checkerboard pattern achieved with strip piecing, a streamlined set of templates, and a few clever cutting tweaks for maximum variation. Omega's curves are gentle, and her wonky nature forgives some imprecision, so sit back and enjoy the sew! (Miss Make, pattern designer).

We will be making the Improv-Style - Throw size quilt (60" x 72"). Kit is available to be purchased prior to class. Supply list available on sign up. Please speak with Joanne if you have any questions.

This is an intermediate-level class.

Class: $45

Classes and Clubs

Technique Class

All Things Binding

Saturday, May 16: 9a - 1p

Class: $25 (kits will be provided)

Technique Class

Posh Penelope with Quick Curve Ruler

Wednesday, May 27, 5-8 pm
Instructor: Dianne

This is a technique class for creating the Posh Penelope block using the Quick Curve ruler. You will make one block in class, but you can use 3 for a table runner or 4 for a wall hanging, or a bunch for a quilt! It's a great way to use up leftovers from previous projects. (Think baby quilts or Christmas fabrics!) You will need the Sew Kind of Wonderful Posh Penelope pattern and the Quick Curve ruler for this class.

Class: $25

Classes and Clubs
