Summer Reading Program Continues!

We have a fun-filled summer packed with lots of engaging, entertaining, and challenging activities for your whole family. Our 2024 Summer Reading Program "Adventure Begins at Your Library" marches on through the READSquared website or app. Children continue to work towards earning prizes at the end of the program. LAST DAY FOR BOOK LOGGING IS AUGUST 18. We will continue to have weekly take-home craft bags available for anyone who would like to stop in and take them home, (no registration required!) through August 17 and we will also have weekly in-person entertainment or craft events. Prizes will be available August 21—31st. Some August events include Space Night, Paper Making, Balloon Twisting Class and Yoga in the Park. Everyone is welcome to participate. We will also offer a pool pass to the Jordan Pool and State and County Park Passes. It's time for some fun in the sun... with books!

CHECK OUT OUR PASS TO THE JORDAN POOL

The Elbridge Free Library has acquired a family pass to the Jordan Veteran's Memorial Pool. The pass is available to patrons for a one-day trip for a family of five to the pool. This pass is first come, first serve, and no holds. Pass must be used the date it is checked out. The pool is located at 299 Brutus Road, Jordan. Our pass will save you $5 per person! Enjoy a day of swimming, diving, and splash pad fun, on us.

Adult Summer Reading Incentive

Calling Adults! Grab your summer reading punch card and earn a ticket punch for every visit to the library this summer. Once you've received all your punches, drop your card into the bowl for your chance to win our "Book Lovers R&R gift basket."
