

NASHVILLE'S LILLIEPAD GUIDEBOOK

Nashville, TN 37211

Thank you for choosing the LilliePad for your trip to Nashville!
This house has been in my family since 1958, and I hope you feel the love in the walls as I do.

This guidebook packs A LOT of information, and admittedly, is overwhelming, but I have such a wide variety of guests, I wanted to make sure that it would be helpful to everyone. 😊
Some places are listed in more than one category, so you will likely see something listed more than once. I've also put an asterisk by my favorite things, or the most popular. I hope you find this book helpful and informative. I will do my best to keep the links updated, and you can always ask me questions!
There is a hard and soft copy available, so that you can just click the links to the websites easily.

I truly hope both the LilliePad and Nashville exceed your expectations! Happy exploring!

Thank you!

Your hosts,
Laura & Jolene 🐾🐾

NEW NASHVILLE

Broadway Honky Tonks and Bars

Please note that ALL of the bartenders, servers, AND musicians work for tips. They are paid a very minimal wage ($2.13 for bartenders / servers and the musicians average $50-$100 a session from the house). They TRULY depend on your tips, so please take care of these amazing people! They work VERY hard. I bartended on Broadway for several years, and it's physically and mentally tough – awesome, fun, fast paced, and cool, but it's tough. 18%-20% is still standard for bartenders. Musicians....depends on what you're asking of them. If you simply enjoyed the show, $5 in their bucket is nice. For specific song requests, $20 is standard, but some are ok with $10. Freebird will almost always cost $100. So, be prepared for that if you ask for it! 😊 Also, most bars on Broadway serve food, with just a few exceptions.

FUN FACT! Do the “Hornbeck Bar Crawl!” My friend, Shawna, and her sisters Shelby and Stevie are triplets, and they all bartend on Broadway! They had a reality TV show in LA that did pretty well. Shawna is at Bootleggers, Shelby is at Legends, and Stevie is at Layla's!

WHERE THE LOCALS GO “OUT”

Locals rarely go to Broadway – with the exception of 5th & Broad. That’s a new space, so you will definitely find some locals there. Downtown is just so much and most locals prefer to live it up on a slightly smaller scale. Midtown, The Gulch, 12 South, Edgehill, and Demonbreun are all hotspots.

Coffee Shops

I think White Bison has great coffee, but it's not a coffee shop. It's inside the Shell / Twice Daily gas station. There are tables, but it's not a comfortable place. They do have a drive through, though, so if you're on the move, it's a good place to go. Red Bicycle has a great place to sit and chill AND good coffee, but no drive through. The closest Starbucks isn't very close.

Regions – There are two about 2 miles away, but opposite directions. The one in Woodbine is harder to get in and out of, but is on the way to downtown, Belmont, etc. The Harding Mall location is at a huge intersection, but there is a light to help. Also, the Walmart is there.

TRANSPORTATION

Public transportation in Nashville definitely leaves something to be desired. Parking downtown will cost you $30-$50 on a night out. During the day, you can still find $10-15 lots, but you'll need to walk 5-7 blocks to get to Broadway. If you plan on drinking, please take a ride share or taxi. It's SUPER easy to have too much to drive on Broadway. Message me for a Lyft referral code (I don't use Uber). If you don't already have Lyft, you'll get a discount on your first ride. It's usually $5 or $10 and since it's only $12 to get downtown.....that makes a difference!

Taxi – There are several, and they're usually more expensive than Uber / Lyft. If you're downtown and ready to go home, they're fine to hop in and get back to the LilliePad (usually $5-10 more than ride share), but I really wouldn't recommend a taxi otherwise. <https://www.cityof.com/tn/nashville/taxis>
