

ANHPEHRA General Membership Meeting

March 7, 2019

Called to order at 9:00 a.m.

Carol Kilmister started the meeting by welcoming everyone. There were 35 members and guests in attendance. Sue Hilchey spoke of today's presentation on Right to Know by NHSBA's Barret Christina, Executive Director and William Phillips, Staff Attorney. Sue told the group we are always wanting to hear from them on what they would like to have presentations on. Darlene Simmons mentioned there has been inquiries about Behavioral Health.

Carol gave the Treasurer's report. We have 91 member renewals; we would love to reach the triple digits! The current check book balance is $3,516.71. We do not anticipate changing our dues amount of $15.00 per year.

Carol did the gift card drawing. Andrew Sykes from the City of Keene was the winner.

Larry Budreau from City of Nashua put a plug in for the presentation on Behavioral Health.

All present introduced themselves and the organization they represented. A great presentation was enjoyed by all on Right to Know Considerations for HR Professionals.

Meeting adjourned at 11:06 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sharon Patterson,

ANHPEHERA Secretary
