Clueless

Synopsis

ACT I

Cher Horowitz is a wealthy, popular 15-year-old living in Beverly Hills with her widowed father, Mel, a successful lawyer. Though good-natured, Cher is naive and caught up in a superficial lifestyle revolving around expensive clothes and the social hierarchy of her high school. Her best friend Dionne has a similar outlook on life, though she dates a high school boy named Murray. High school student Josh, interns at Mel's law firm and has always had a crush on Cher.

In Cher's debate class, Amber stuns the class with her skills while Cher thinks she can give a short rebuttal. The debate teacher, Mr. Hall gives her a C grade for the semester, which starts a dramatic chain of events. Dionne, who got a lackluster grade as well, hatches a plan with Cher to find a romantic interest for Mr. Hall, thus hypothetically making him happy enough to consider boosting their grades. They select another teacher, Miss Geist, as the chief candidate, and spark a mutual interest between her and Mr. Hall with a forged love letter and some subtle manipulation. The teachers soon become a couple.

Tai Frasier, a grungy artist with a trusting disposition and a clueless grasp of high school popularity, transfers to Cher's school. Cher and Dionne befriend Tai, and decide to give her a makeover to improve her social standing. However, cheerful skateboarder Travis Birkenstock and Tai hit it off despite Cher. Everyone notices and loves the new look!

ACT II

Cher stages a photoshoot with her friends, and notices Tai all alone. Frustrated with Travis and high school boys, Tai notices Elton. Tai is giddy with excitement, and while Elton is surprisingly receptive, he pays much more direct attention to Cher. Travis invites everyone at school to a house party. To present the newly made-over Tai to the high school elite, Cher and Dionne decide to go.

At the mansion, Mel, Josh and the rest of the lawyers are working on a big case. Cher, Dionne and Tai change to go to the party. Mel notices that Josh wants to go and be with Cher.

Once again, they attempt to steer her toward Elton, and believe that they made a connection when Tai is knocked unconscious by Travis, and Elton revives her with an ice pack. However, when departing, Cher winds up being driven home by Elton, who makes a pass at her, confirming that he had never been interested in Tai who happens to see them together. Cher is shocked, Elton abandons her in a parking lot far from home. She immediately calls Josh to ask for a lift. Cher is impressed by Josh's compassion and quick response to come to her aid.

At school the next day, Mr. Hall is much more lenient with his grading and Travis gets his first 'A'. Miss Geist stops by the class, and Mr. Hall Proposes! While everyone is excited for their new grades and can't wait for the Ska dance party, Cher arrives late to class. Tai had already spread the word that Cher wanted Elton to herself. Embarrassed, Josh leaves the class, and soon everyone else follows, disappointed with Cher.

At the party, Cher tells Tai the truth and Elton apologizes. While everyone has paired off Tai self-consciously stands alone watching Elton dancing with his new girlfriend Amber. Josh dances with Tai to help her feel more included and comfortable. Cher is pleasantly surprised by this thoughtful gesture. Tai immediately speaks to Cher in private, excitedly revealing that she has overcome her disappointment about Elton because of her newfound attraction to Josh. Cher is startled by the discomfort she feels in response to this news, and tells Tai that she does not think Josh is a good match for her. Tai is affronted, and insults Cher before departing. Cher realizes that she herself is in love with Josh.

Not long after their fight, Tai approaches Cher and the two become friends again. Cher realizes that Travis is indeed worthy of Tai's affection, and is pleased when they reconcile.

Mr. Hall and Miss Geist are married with many of their students in attendance, including Cher, Dionne, Murray, Tai, Travis, Elton, Amber and Josh. The girls congregate as the bride prepares to throw the bouquet, and their boyfriends watch the ensuing scuffle with amusement until Cher triumphantly surfaces, bouquet in hand. Cher isn't clueless about her feelings for Josh anymore!
