MAGA PREPARES TO CONTEST '24 ELECTION

By Stan Purdy

MAGA Republicans are preparing to overturn the 2024 Presidential Election if Trump loses. Trump is saying that the only way he will lose, is if the Democrats organize a fraudulent election. He continues to claim the 2020 election was stolen. Despite the fact Trump is quoted in the book, "Apprentice in Wonderland," by Ramin Setoodeh, from several interviews, that he actually knew he lost the 2020 Election. Trump has warned that if he loses there will be a "blood bath."

Trump supporters claim that voting methods, mail- in ballots, drop box ballots, and unrestricted absentee ballots, and early voting are potentially fraudulent. They object to these expanded methods of voting because it affords more people, especially democrats, the opportunity to vote. My response to their claims-- where is the evidence,! evidence,! evidence,! or that the alleged fraud would make any difference in a national election There is none!

In 2023 and 2024, in battle ground states, Trump's lieutenants have filed lawsuits to stop the certification of voting results in primary and general elections. Reportedly, the Republican National Committee will only hire employees if they deny the results of the 2020 election. It is expected that they will have an easier chance of overturning elections in districts where the director of elections has changed to a Trump supporter.

The United States method of voting is the most reliable in the world. I challenge anyone to produce evidence that I am wrong! I believe, based on what Trump and his MAGA allies say and are doing, we should expect another attempt at a coup. The best way to avoid his violence is to overwhelmingly defeat him at the polls.
