Greetings from your Pacifica W-ELCA President

My journey continues this Lenten season.

In addition this month our Adult Sunday School class began a 6 week Video Bible Study called "Prayer: Does It Make Any Difference?" This study by Yancey really makes you think. What's your experience with Prayer? When do you usually pray?

As I mentioned last month I was in Chicago for four full days attending the Women of the ELCA Conference of Synodical President's meetings. Our theme was "The Good News Guide." Sixty-Four (64) women plus the churchwide board and churchwide staff were in attendance. My roommate was Kandy Pflaster, President of the Nebraska Synodical Women of the ELCA. As she stated in "Expressions", Nebraska's Newsletter, "God is there for you, just let him open all those doors of excitement." For those who don't know, Nebraska Women of the ELCA is our Partner Synod. Within this Partner Relationship we are lead to wonderful friendships, fellowship, conversations, maintain community and even pray for one another. We met together at times and then in groups for Hot Topic Workshops, Regional Caucus Times (we are Region 2C of 1-9 Regions), Money Matters (Stewardship), Religion Section (Worship), Book Review, Headliners (Plenary with guest speakers), Top Stories (25th Anniversary news), Daily Word Search (Bible Study), Milestones (Recognitions), Let's Get Visible (Facebook, Pinterest, Twitter) and Entertainment (a funny female comedian and motivational speaker who knows how to entertain, inspire and make people laugh). WOW, we were busy

I asked for your prayers for our recent Pacifica's March 3rd event at Bethlehem Lutheran, Los Alamitos, CA. Your prayers really were answered. We had 85 registered. Everything went well and I thank everyone who planned and helped make this event a success. I am happy to report that we took a pick-up truck full of Love Gifts and $1000.00 gift including cash, checks and gift cards to Lutheran Social Services Community Care Center at St. Olaf Lutheran Church. Garden Grove, CA. I met with Bea Rea the LSS Program Director/ Emergency Assistance and her husband who gave me a tour of the facility. She was so happy and sent us a wonderful Thank You for our Love Gifts. I hope you all will continue to JOURNAL.

Within this newsletter please see important information and flyers on our upcoming Cluster events around our synod. Please plan to attend and bring a friend.

Please keep our SWO Board and Convention planning team in your prayers the next coming months. We are excited to announce that Convention will be somewhere in the Inland Empire area, November 2-4, 2012. We are awaiting confirmation on our site!

Blessings,

Andrea Campbell

Prepare for 25th anniversary by celebrating Women's History Month

Linda Post Bushkofsky

Editor's note: A version of this piece appears in the March 2012 issue of Gather, gathermagazine.org.

Women of the ELCA is set to observe the 25th anniversary of its creation, and we remember the Lutheran women who have paved the way for us today. With the rights and freedoms we enjoy, it's all too easy to ignore the struggles that our foremothers endured, even those foremothers who are just a generation or two older than we are. Consider observing Women's History Month next month in a way that helps prepare for our year long 25th anniversary observance that begins this June. Here are a few ideas to get you started.

Use Women's History Month (March) to collect the stories of women in your congregation. Then publish their stories as part of your anniversary celebration. Ask them to recall women's roles in the congregation and church during their lifetimes. How have they changed? Ask if they were involved in the women's movement in the 1960s and 1970s. How did that involvement influence their faith journey? If you record their stories, consider creating pod casts or videos to share, maybe even creating a composite that could be aired as a kick-off to the 25th anniversary year.

Record the dreams and hopes of teens and young women in your congregation, honoring their aspirations. Invite younger and older women alike to imagine what the next 25th years of Women of the ELCA will include. Pair up those young women with older women, offering mentoring opportunities. Together older and younger women can live out the purpose of Women of the ELCA in supporting "one another in our callings."

Select a book to read or video to watch and follow it with a discussion. You might consider the memoir Mighty Be Our Powers by Leymah Gbowee, a featured speaker at our triennial gathering last summer who was awarded the 2011 Nobel Peace Prize. Upon reading Gbowee's book, churchwide executive board member Phyllis Rude of Anchorage, Alaska, remarked, "her book makes me ask myself 'What more can I do besides talk and pray about problems I see around me?" Use that question to frame a kickoff to the 25th anniversary year where each participant in your congregational unit makes an intentional commitment to move beyond talk and prayer into action. Plan ways that you can inspire and encourage one another throughout the year.

We're going to have a great celebration of Women of the ELCA's first 25 years. Plan now to take an active role in that celebration.

Did you know that each year the Women of the ELCA gives out grant and scholarships to agencies and nonprofits supporting healing and wholeness for women all ages? They can apply for a grant or scholarship to help support girls in developing life skills, training, education, and other resources. You are probably already aware of an organization that could use some extra funds to support their efforts in helping girls and women. Begin planning now to apply for the grants for next year. See the womenoftheelca.org website for more information.

Your offerings help to improve the lives of girls and women.
