Letter from the President

June 2010

Do any of you use Facebook? Maybe to at least keep in touch with some family members - or find and hear from/about other friends and relatives whom you see or hear from very seldom? I dragged my feet on setting up an account. My husband "just did it" for me as he thought I should also "get caught up" with friends and family. So I do open it daily though I seldom comment or write much. At Conference of Presidents this past February, my roommate was Gwen Edwards who is the Nebraska Women of the ELCA president. She has a Facebook account and I accepted her as a friend. Last month I talked about attending Synod Assembly - she recently attended the Nebraska Synod Assembly. She is much more prolific on Facebook! One thing she said caught my eye. Some of you likely met Ardi Hoins who was the NE president from 2000-2005. Remember Nebraska is our partner synod and we have shared breakfast at Triennial Gatherings. Well Gwen wrote on her Facebook page that Ardi was elected the Vice President of the NE Synod Council. Halle, Halle, Halle-lu-jah!

Which brings to mind our elections this fall. Hope you are deciding on a nomination from your unit for Triennial in Spokane next summer. And also prayerfully considering accepting a nomination for a position on our board - or at least submitting a suggestion to our nominations chair.

Our board will be meeting at the end of this month at King of Glory in Fountain Valley where we will all meet in convention in November. The next issue of this newsletter will have a registration form. This issue has a resolution form added. Remember resolutions are the method by which we can conduct business and through which any and all of you have a voice. Please send your resolutions to me by September 15th. A resolutions team will be named from the delegates who register. They must review any and all resolutions and prepare a recommendation when a resolution is presented on the floor of the convention.

One new item of interest for the November is that Barbara Martyn will be our Bible Study leader. She is a diaconal minister at First Lutheran in Fullerton. Her husband is a pastor there and they have a son who is the new pastor at Eden Lutheran in Riverside.

Another plug for someone to serve as historian. Am hoping that if I keep asking, someone will step forward. Interested or know someone who would be interested? Let me know!

Have a Happy and Restful Summer as we all continue

Acting Boldly in Christ!
Eunice

God is calling! Women need to listen!

One day as I was walking into church I noticed a newsletter on the bulletin board. I think it was even fluttering, maybe to catch my eye. I stopped to look at it. It was a scholarship application for the Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America annual convention in San Bernardino. Of course I immediately grabbed that paper and started to fill it out, not! I kind of wondered aloud, "Where the heck is San Bernardino?" I spent the next week getting various answers to that question, none of them started with a beautiful seaside retreat, or a lovely resort town, or a mountain retreat, no, most people just said somewhere in the middle of California. Well believe it or not the next Sunday once again I walked past the bulletin board and flutter, flutter, flutter. I don't remember much wind. I reached up, made sure no one was looking and grabbed the scholarship application and put it in my purse.

I am a very faithful member of a very small church. There are maybe 20 people on an average Sunday and the only women's group we had at the time was which two of us were in the kitchen washing up at the same time. I'd never heard of W-ELCA and had no idea how that little fluttering paper might change my life.

I took it home filled it out and popped it in the mail. I didn't tell anyone about it, I thought they might think I was nuts. I prayed about it and left it in God's hands. One day I received the letter that told me I had received the scholarship and would be attending my first W-ELCA event in sunny San Bernardino.

God had a hand in this as he saw me floundering in my faith and realized I needed a strong community of Lutheran women to ignite my passion for the Lord. I was nominated by Betty Flom to run for a position on the board and the rest as they say is history. I have never been stronger in my faith and I now lead a women's Bible study at my own little church. Sometimes it's just me and my pastor but I know in my heart I am listening to what God is calling me to do! I have loved every minute in this organization and have made life-long friends and sisters in Christ.

Watch for the fluttering of that paper on the bulletin board, some may think it is only a convention registration form, but if you listen carefully, maybe it is God calling you to step out of your comfort zone and challenge yourself to be a bold women in Christ! We will be there when you heed the call! Come find your boldness and renew your faith! Join us for the W-ELCA November Convention...

BUSINESS = RESOLUTIONS

Why we write resolutions

Among the benefits of participating in Women of the ELCA is the opportunity to have a voice in determining the activities and direction of the organization. Where we go and what we do as a churchwide organization and as synodical organizations is very much up to you. That is why we meet in conventions, and at those conventions, we conduct business via resolutions. A resolution should be thought of as:

- A way to participate in the democratic process and have your voice heard;

- A means of educating women about a particular need or concern;

A vehicle for inspiring others to take a particular action.

If you are intimidated at the idea of writing a resolution, you shouldn't be. It isn't difficult. Resolutions are really just a way to introduce and deliberate business when you assemble a fairly large number of people together. Five people sitting around a table can discuss business one way; 100 people in a banquet hall have to conduct business in a more formalized way if they are going to make any progress.

Resolutions are also a way to plan and think ahead, and to hold ourselves accountable for the decisions we make: A resolution, when passed, is no longer an idea to consider – it is a commitment.

Who prepares and presents resolutions?

Every congregational/intercongregational unit has the right and privilege to prepare and present, through its delegate, a resolution to the convention.

How is a resolution worded?

Please use the following format:

WHEREAS, _____ therefore, be it (state the preamble or reason the motion is being offered for consideration)

RESOLVED, THAT _____ (state the motion)

Resolution must be signed by a delegate and include the name of her unit, city, and state.

How are resolutions handled at convention?

Any delegate may offer a resolution from the floor, which is germane to any pending question. Resolutions of a general character and not germane to a pending question may be introduced at the time "New Business" is called for during the convention. The Committee on Reference and Council then prepares recommendations for convention action on the resolutions it receives. This committee will also help delegates with the proper wording of a resolution. Three copies are necessary: One for the secretary, one for the convention chair, and one for you to keep

When are resolutions to be submitted?

Resolutions may be mailed to President, Eunice Hanson, 3627 Cerro Avenue, Oceanside, CA 92056. You may also send them by FAX to 760-806-8116 or email them to eunicehanson@cox.net.

Resolutions should be received by September 15, 2010.

From one BOLD woman to another:

God invites each of us to say yes to what is asked of us, but God does not get angry if we don't.

Perhaps you, too, are being invited to try something a little different in your life, to step out of your comfort zone.

Trust in the Lord, have Faith, be strong, and listen for God and go where you are called.

Purpose Statement
