Letter from the President

May 2010

page2

Just came from a fantastic Synod Assembly! Even though we as Women of the ELCA are separately incorporated, we of course are partners in ministry with the whole church. Each year your synod president has the opportunity to send a written report for the Assembly Notebook and/or to orally present a brief report to the Assembly. In the past I have attended as a delegate but as your president I have usually attended just for one day on the day when I was given time to speak. This year I was a bit more involved and attended the entire three days.

Our Presiding Bishop Mark Hanson was in attendance. Just as we have a Churchwide representative at our conventions, the Synod Assembly also does. Every six years we elect or re-elect a bishop and the presiding bishop conducted the election this year. But we heard a lot more from him – he gave a report just as our CW reps do, he preached at a worship service, he spoke at the Friday evening Festival Dinner, and held a Q & A hour after that. One never tires of listening to him. His presence, his humor, how and what he says keep you wanting to hear more.

This year was also different in other ways. Friday afternoon attendees could select from quite a wide variety of mission/ministry opportunities in the community and at the Assembly site. Similar to what we have planned for this November. And Friday evening was a Mission Festival Dinner rather than the normal entertainment banquet. That was an extraordinary evening!!

And you thought quilting was done only by Women of the ELCA in each unit – or maybe also at a Triennial Gathering. Well, this year, a corner of the Assembly hospitality room was set up to finish putting quilts together. And at least one was done as a prayer quilt. That is as you tie one of the ties, you pray for the recipient of the quilt. I received that quilt on behalf of our Women of the ELCA. It isn't finished, but we will finish it at our November convention and then present it to the family whose home we work at for the Thrivent build. The Assembly theme was "Together in Christ" and the prayer quilt will be one connection of how the church and our organization are together in ministry.

Speaking of CW reps, Diane Brauer will be here in November for our convention. I've met her during our Conference of Presidents events each year. She is a delightful CW board member and we are happy to have her come this year. We don't usually make our CW reps work too hard but she will give a report – that is mandated. She will visit and mix with all you who attend and be willing to listen to questions, concerns, or just about who we are here in Pacifica.

Have not yet heard from a "new fashioned" historian so want to keep asking. We have some scrapbooks of pictures from years past with a couple newer ones done by a "Creative Memories" artist. But we have a lot of digital pictures on CDs from recent years that could really use some time and interest to put them in electronic albums. Interested or know someone who would be interested? Let me know!

Acting Boldly in Christ!

Life in the Blender

When you are in a happy place a blender can be a wonderful tool to make a frothy, fun drink. But when you are struggling to deal with changes in dynamics or roles it can feel like a deadly weapon set to chew you up and spit you out.

“Blended Family” is a relatively new but very common term in today’s world. Most people are either part of one, getting into one or having to deal with the fallout from one. With a lot of patience and hard work they can be the beginning of lifetime family relationships that have very little to do with blood. While trying to do the actual blending can be a long mine field filled process. As always when I have difficult things to deal with I turn to the one book that always holds help, advice and often comfort. One powerful tool in this often volatile relationship voyage is the ability to control your tongue. Here are a few passages that may help.

Psalm 19:14 Let my words and my thoughts be pleasing to you, Lord, because you are my mighty rock and my protector.

My family has been going on it’s merry way with me being the dysfunctional relationship component. Having been married five times doesn’t count much in the committed relationship category. I like to think of it as being an eternal optimist. My parents have been married for 47 years and most of that time has been loving and supportive. That is not to say there haven’t been times where my brother and I had to be the go betweens of conversations that began with tell your mother... or tell your father... My brother has been the long suffering bachelor and has been in a symbiotic care giving relationship with my parents. I am not always sure who is taking care of whom.

Proverbs 23:22 Pay attention to your father, and don’t neglect your mother when she grows old. Invest in truth and wisdom, discipline and good sense, and don’t part with them. Make your father truly happy by living right and showing sound judgment. Make your parents proud, especially your mother.

In less time than it takes to incubate a child, my brother found a high school classmate, fell in love, moved out of our parent’s house and got married. Needless to say it has been a bit of a bumpy ride. My parents panicked and then decided it was my brother’s one shot at happiness. So the family focus became turning our two families into a beautiful, fruity, smoothie. No rough edges, no sharp edges, no strife, or angst. Of course real life is messy and hard. We are all trying to focus on the positive and keep an open mind and a loving heart. A prayer for help.

Psalm 5:2-3 Listen, Lord as I pray! Pay attention when I groan. You are my king and my God. Answer my cry for help to you as I pray to you. Each morning you listen to my prayer, as I bring my requests to you and wait for your reply.

Pleased to introduce our Churchwide Rep for our November Gathering...

Vita: Diane L. Brauer

Executive Board Member, 2008-2011

Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Diane Brauer was re-elected to the churchwide executive board of Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in July 2008. She serves on the executive committee, the program and communication committee, and as the synodical convention coordinator.

Diane has participated in the global education and advocacy seminars and shared her faith with our Lutheran sisters in West Africa and South America. She has traveled to Argentina with the Nebraska Synod. Diane has also served on a county domestic abuse center board and volunteered at a free clinic.

Today she is a member of Calvary Lutheran Church in Scottsbluff, Nebraska. Diane has lived in four synods over the past 20 years, serving on the synodical board in Montana and as president of the Western North Dakota Synodical Women's Organization. She has been involved in World Hunger and Vacation Bible School, and was an advisor for the Lutheran Youth Organization for many years.

Diane is married to Brad, an ELCA pastor. He enjoys being a youth baseball umpire in his free time. They have two adult daughters: Erinn is in retail management in Omaha and Meghan is a dietician in Memphis, where she is married to Kevin.

Prior to moving to Scottsbluff in 2010 she was employed with Lincoln Public Schools as the office manager in the district's purchasing department. When she has free time, she enjoys reading, sewing, cross-stitching, and crossword puzzles. She loves to travel—especially to the mountains or ocean.

She is excited about supporting and encouraging women in their leadership roles and rejoices in God's global community and our work in it. The gift of serving on the churchwide executive board is an amazing blessing for her, a response to the call to act boldly on her faith with her sisters in Christ in our church, our community, and our world.
