

Job Title: Lead Summer Camp Counselor

Location: Leduc, Alberta

Duration: Summer 2024

Application Deadline: June 1, 2024

About the C.L. Whole You Foundation:

The C.L. Whole You Foundation is committed to fostering an inclusive, safe, and dynamic environment that supports the holistic development of young people. Our SummerWELL Youth Camp is designed to empower campers through structured recreational activities, learning modules, and personal growth opportunities while enjoying nature's beauty.

Job Description:

As a Summer Camp Counselor, you will be pivotal in shaping a transformative summer experience for campers aged 7-12. You will facilitate activities, guide educational programs, and ensure a safe and engaging environment that respects and celebrates the diversity of all campers and staff.

Responsibilities:

- Plan, lead, and supervise daily activities, outings, and educational workshops with enthusiasm and care.
- Ensure the physical and emotional safety of campers at all times, with a keen sensitivity to individual needs, including cultural backgrounds and identities.
- Foster a supportive, inclusive, and positive group atmosphere that encourages camaraderie and personal growth among campers.
- Assist in conflict resolution and be a role model in all interactions, demonstrating respect, inclusiveness, and understanding.
- Communicate effectively with co-counselors, camp leadership, and parents about camper experiences and any concerns that may arise.

- Participate in staff meetings and training sessions to continuously improve the delivery of camp programs.
- Uphold the policies and reputation of the C.L. Whole You Foundation both within and outside the camp setting.

Qualifications:

- Experience in camp, youth programs, recreation, teaching, or a related field.
- Demonstrable ability to lead, motivate, and engage young people in age-appropriate activities.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to adapt to diverse groups of individuals.
- A commitment to equity, inclusion, and respect for all cultural, gender, and sexual identities.
- Ability to respond appropriately to emergencies and enforce safety guidelines.
- CPR and First Aid certifications are preferred.

Benefits:

- Opportunities for professional development and leadership training.
- A rewarding environment where you can significantly impact young lives.

Application Instructions: Please submit a resume and a cover letter detailing your interest and qualifications for the Summer Camp Counselor position. Applications must be received by June 1, 2024. Send applications to admin@clwholeyoufoundation.ca.
