SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE INFORMATION

Beloved in the Lord,

Congratulations! You have chosen to be married in the Orthodox Christian Church. In the Orthodox wedding ceremony, a man and a woman are joined as a couple through Christ. At the same time, they are also joined to the community in which they are married. This means that you should get to know the Church that you are being married in, since it will be like a new family and a second home. Weddings require a good deal of preparation - such as preparing invitations, booking a caterer etc. At the same time, it is greatly important to prepare spiritually for this mystery, the union of two people in a Christ centred Community. Here are some of the steps to becoming a closer member of our Community and while helping you prepare for your Marriage in Christ:

- We must take the time needed. The time and effort you put into getting ready for your wedding is never a waste. It is important that this period of preparation is never rushed but used effectively to build a strong road to your Marriage. A wedding is a day - a marriage is a lifetime.
- Preparatory Meetings. It is important to get to know your Priest and feel comfortable to discuss any thoughts or concerns you may be feeling with him. This requires more time than just during the Sunday Coffee times. For this reason, weekday meetings will be planned with your convenience in mind so as to discuss the meaning of the Marriage Service and the Orthodox way of life. Also during this time the preparation of the wedding license and affidavit from the Archdiocese will be completed.
- Participating in the Liturgical Life of the Church. This means coming to Church Services often and preparation for Holy Communion. In the coming days you can get to know Fr. Costa and speak about how to involve yourself in the Church. It is recommended that everyone participating in the sacrament be properly prepared by fasting, prayer, receiving Holy Communion, and participating in the Sacrament of Holy Confession. Essentially a confession should include everything that a person may have done in their life up until this point that is not 'Christ-like'. Sometimes it is helpful to make a list so as to not forget anything.
- The Koumbari (Sponsor(s) – Best Man or Woman). The person(s) who will be involved in the wedding service, during the Ring Blessing and Crowing, must be Orthodox and in good standing. Ideally, they should be members of the Church you will be married in and belong to. They will be a source of support during this time of preparation and afterwards in your daily life. It is a good idea to discuss candidates for sponsors with your Priest as he can help you guide you to the best choice in fulfilling their duties.
- It takes a Community to build a family. It is the Christian teaching, that to join to Christ is inseparable to joining His Church. This means that, as we stated before, being married in a Church leads to being a member of that Church. Being a part of the family has both physical and spiritual benefits and responsibilities. One of these responsibilities is to keep your membership current and up to date. Your contributions to the Community, through time and money, are what allow it to live and grow. In return you are joined by an entire group of like-minded persons all working for the same common goal, a loving relationship with each other in Christ. For information on membership please contact our Community Office.
- Rehearsals. Rehearsals are not mandatory, as our Church staff will assist you in guiding where to stand on the day of the sacrament, but if you wish to do so you can call the office and arrange a time with Father.

As a final note, all good things come with hard work and that usually means it is accompanied by stress. While difficulties, both spiritually and organizational are unavoidable when planning a wedding, don't forget you are not alone. If you need any help, to talk, or just have someone listen, please contact the Church.

May the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; the All-Holy, Consubstantial and Life-creating Trinity; One Godhead and Kingdom; bless you; grant to you long life, well favoured children, progress in life and in Faith; replenish you with all the good things of the earth, and count you worthy of the promised blessings, through the intercessions of the holy Theotokos, and of all the Saints.
+ Final Blessing of the Sacrament of Marriage

Important Notes:

It is suggested that the couple being married, and the sponsor(s) also participate in the Sacrament of Holy Confession and receive Holy Communion before the Marriage so as to also be prepared. Essentially a confession should include everything that a person may have done in their life up until this point that is not 'Christ-like'. Sometimes it is helpful to make a list so as to not forget anything. The couple is beginning a new chapter in their lives therefore it is important for the family to start this new life in Christ together completely prepared. It is important for the couple and sponsor(s) to attend Church together on a regular basis leading up to the Marriage but also as often as possible after the Marriage. The days before the Marriage should be devoted to prayer and preparation.
