REGISTRATION POLICIES

- Cheque payments must be received one week before registration deadline. A fee of $45 will be requested for NSF cheques.
- All classes and workshops are subject to sufficient registration. The Guild reserves the right to cancel or postpone a class or workshop 14 days prior to the course date. Registrants will be notified and a full refund will be issued in the event of a cancellation.
- Where a class/workshop has reached capacity, a waiting list may be kept by the Programming Coordinator.
- No make-up classes will be offered for a student unable to attend a class. If a student withdraws up to 14 days prior to the course starting date, the class or workshop fee will be refunded, minus a $25 service fee. There is no refund after that date.
- In the event of inclement weather, please visit the NPCC website www.neilsonparkcreativecentre.com to confirm if classes, workshops or events are running. Students will not be contacted when Neilson Park Creative Centre is closed due to weather. A make-up arrangement will be made.
- Programs offered by the Guild, in keeping with the policies established by Neilson Park Creative Centre, aim to provide a safe, positive and welcoming learning environment. Students and instructors are to respect the care and maintenance policies of studio facilities.
