Please make yourself at home.
 To help us get to know you, we invite you to sign our guest book (at the back of the church),
 and join us for fellowship following worship.
 There are activity sheets at the back for kids of all ages,
 and a nursery for young children.

All people are welcomed at God's table for communion. The best way to know what to do is to follow the people around you.
 This bulletin has the order of service on the front to help you know where we are in the hymn book.
 If you have any questions don't hesitate to ask the person sitting closest to you.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

This week and last week's bulletin inserts have been prepared using resources provided in This Far By Faith, an ELCA resource for African American Lutheran Congregations. It is published by Augsburg Fortress. Today's insert highlights the "Seven Principles." To learn more, you are encouraged to visit the Black Cultural Centre for Nova Scotia, in Cherry Brook, NS (near Cole Harbour). This facility is a museum and library resource centre that focuses on the history and culture of African Nova Scotians.

FEBRUARY'S SPECIAL APPEAL

Gifts are being collected for Martin Luther University College. This is one of two Lutheran University Colleges in Canada. Martin Luther University College:

- Prepares and provides ongoing training to pastors and other leaders for ministry
- Trains students for careers in counselling where they strengthen the health and well-being of our neighbours in hospitals, long-term-care homes, hospices, and of people seeking help from counselling agencies and private psychotherapy practice.
- Operates the Delton Glebe Counselling Centre that provides affordable counselling service to students and those in the community and serves as a resource to pastors and congregations for mental health issues
- Provides youth with the opportunity to grow their faith as they pursue a university education through an undergraduate Christian Studies and Global Citizenship program
- Provides Lutheran experiment with new forms of worship in changing times (Thirdspace)
- Builds community and understanding across faiths and cultures – two examples: Kanata Centre for Worship and Global Song, and the Abrahamic Faiths Forum.

- Practices reconciliation with our First Nations neighbours and serves as a recourse for congregations that want to foster reconciliation.
- Demonstrates the fact that religion – and people of faith – have a legitimate place in the public square through the Centre for Public ethics

Note that Synod commits to giving Martin Luther University College a portion of Synod Benevolence dollars.

VALENTINE's TEA

-after church this morning-

This event is to warm our hearts in the midst of winter.

In turn we gather a love gift (for the seminary) in thanks for the Pastors and Vicars who have served us over the years.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Sunday Feb. 23rd – Girl Guides – Thinking Day

Those who are involved in all levels of Guiding are invited to wear their scarves or uniforms/shirts with insignia to church.

Wednesday Feb. 26th – ASH Wednesday Service, 7pm

This service begins the Season of Lent. To fully experience the joy of Easter it is suggested that you participate in the extra church services held through Lent.

MID-WEEK LENT Conversation and Coffee

will run on Thursdays, 10:15-11:30am at Cora's Restaurant in Clayton Park

Corner of Dunbrack/Lacewood.

The dates are March 5, 12, 19, 26, and April 2

A collection is taken for coffee/tea. The final week you are invited to stay for lunch (at your own expense).

Theme: At the Name of Jesus

Explored through Philippians 2: 5-11 and interesting translations of the Lord's Prayer.

COMMUNITY SUPPER – Wed. March 11- 6pm

You are invited to come for supper and conversation. A free meal of soup, bread, and desert is provided. This is a great opportunity to reach out to friends and neighbours; inviting them to a homecooked meal at your church. This is an easy way to introduce people to this community.

NGUZO SABA (THE SEVEN PRINCIPLES)

with related biblical passages

Umoja (unity)

To strive for and maintain unity in the family, community, nation, and race.

There is one body and one Spirit . . . one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all.
Ephesians 4:4-6; see also Acts 10:1-37

Kujichagulia (self-determination)

To define ourselves, name ourselves, create for ourselves, and speak for ourselves instead of being defined, named, created for, and spoken for by others.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people.
1 Peter 2:9; see also Numbers 13:31-14:9

Ujima (collective work and responsibility)

To build and maintain our community together and make our sisters' and brothers' problems our problems and to solve them together.

Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.
Galatians 6:2; see also Nehemiah 3:1-31

Ujamaa (cooperative economics)

To build and maintain our own stores, shops, and other businesses and to profit from them together.

Whoever does not provide for relatives, and especially for family members, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
1 Timothy 5:8; see also Acts 2:42-47

Nia (purpose)

To make our collective vocation the building and developing of our community in order to restore our people to their traditional greatness.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses . . . let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.
Hebrews 12:1; see also Esther 4:1-17

Kuumba (creativity)

To do always as much as we can, in the way we can, in order to leave our community more beautiful and beneficial than we inherited it.

Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your might.
Ecclesiastes 9:10; see also 2 Kings 12:1-16

Imani (faith)

To believe with all our heart in our people, our parents, our teachers, and the righteousness and victory of our struggle.

This is the victory that conquers the world, our faith.
1 John 5:4; see also 2 Kings 16:8-17
