

Please join in the fun! Read 5 books about American History between August 1st and December 31,2020. At least two of these books must be biographies. Then, with your parent's permission, fill out the form below. Mail it back to the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 803 at PO Box 591, Southold NY 11971, and we will send you a certificate for ice cream.

Our local libraries have many good books available about American history. A series of books from Scholastic called "Who Was" and "What Is" has a lot of great options. Older children might enjoy the "I Survived" series which includes some events in American History. Usborne Books has a picture book called "History Uncovered: The U.S.A." Don't forget to check your bookshelves at home too!
