Dear Friends,

Webster's Dictionary defines fatigue as "weariness from bodily labor or mental exertion" and its causes "labor or toil." The dictionary goes on to say, "It is typically the result of working, mental stress, jet lag or active recreation, but also from boredom or disease, or simply lack of sleep. It may also have chemical causes – poisoning, mineral or vitamin deficiencies." Many languages have a word for fatigue. They include the meaning of anxious, stressed, and exhausted. It can apply not just to the human condition, but also to the material world. Metal fatigues. Under unreasonable conditions bridges have been known to fail and collapse.

Our society is overwhelmed by fatigue, especially since the pandemic. Fatigue is caused not only by lots of hard work, but lots of hard play, as well as boredom from over-exposure to many activities. It's possible to become fatigued watching too much TV, yes – even too much football. Perhaps you have experienced "scandal fatigue" and "political fatigue" or "crisis fatigue". No doubt you can add to the list. and know personally what it means to be fatigued.

The concept of fatigue is even found in scripture. Sometimes Jesus withdrew from the world to refresh himself (Luke 5:15-16 and Matthew 14:22-23). As an Episcopalian, you may be familiar with this quote from our Book of Common Prayer (Rite I, page 332) - "Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you." Matthew 11:28. Fatigue does not have to be a constant condition of life. There is hope. We can be refreshed and renewed.

Coming to church should not be a cause, but a cure for fatigue. Like Jesus, we can find rest from the stress and difficulties we face in prayer, resting in God's abiding love for each one of us, listening to His voice. God established the Sabbath at the beginning of the world to provide respite from the world's demands and clamoring. In the message of God's love, and in the living out of the message within the Body of Christ, the Church, a new and refreshed future awaits us. Seek and ye shall find.

As the summer months draw to a close, remember the fourth commandment to "keep holy the Sabbath day." Come, join fellow seekers, find refreshment, and perhaps less fatigue.

In Christ,

Denzil J. Luckritz, Rector

Building and Grounds

Projects abound: We await the delivery of our new safe. The roof above the cloister needs replacing and there is a lot of repairs needed to the Parish Hall roof and the leak in the office.. The parking lot needs to be repaved and sealed. I am still dreaming of a lift to assist wheelchairs getting into the Church. We continue to look at redesigning the area by the organ for wheelchair accessibility. The Sandwich Board is hard-wiring the electricians to the awning outside the Benton Street Entrance. We hope to repair the lighting to the entrance of the Church. The list goes on. I added a new category to our on-line giving page on our website for building maintenance donations. And always - thanks to Gary and Maria for the continued beautification of the Church. We shine on the top of the hill!

Ritual, Reason, and Why...

To the popular mind, prayer is a series of petitions recited to God attempting to bend His will to that of the person praying, and which God is honor-bound to fulfill if it is "in accordance with His will." But prayer is no such thing at all! Since God has conferred free will upon His creatures it is no longer possible for Him to accomplish anything with or through them without their consent. No matter how insistently God may knock at the door of one's heart, that door can only be opened from within by oneself. And prayer is the means by which one voluntarily makes contact with the wisdom and power of God and opens up the channels through which the divine grace may flow into one's life. Prayer is, then, not an attempt to conform God to one's scheme of things, but the means of adjusting one's life to God's plan. - from An Introduction to the Episcopal Church by J. B. Bernardin

Working Together for Lasting Change

August 30, 2022

Trinity Episcopal Church Women
218 E Benton St
Aurora, IL 60505-4250

Dear Friends:

Thank you for your gift of $3,000.00 to Episcopal Relief & Development.

Today and over the past few years, our world has faced unimaginable challenges. The magnitude of suffering, illness and loss, resulting from the global pandemic and increasingly frequent disasters, defies belief. It has also exposed some underlying conditions that we have long addressed - hunger, lack of access to health services, economic insecurity and environmental challenges. These conditions continue to ravage many parts of the world, particularly impacting the most marginalized people. Your vital support helps us rise to meet these challenges and make a real difference in the lives of so many.

Thanks to your generosity our partners around the world have responded, as they always do, with courage, determination and breathtaking ingenuity as they address our program priorities of promoting early childhood development, reducing gender based violence, building climate resilience and responding to the devastation of natural disasters and the crisis in the Ukraine.

I am so grateful to have you as our partner and to be standing with you now looking into the future. There is so much more to do. You can keep abreast of our progress on our website. I know that working together for lasting change with you will get us closer to the transformed world and abundant life that God imagines for all of us.

Faithfully,

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Exciting Music Coming to Trinity

We have some wonderful events coming to Trinity. The next event in our concert series is the fantastic organist, Aaron Tan.

Concert organist Aaron Tan is a leading young artist in North America. In October 2021 he was awarded First Prize at the 2021 Canadian International Organ Competition as well as three additional awards for performances of specific works at the competition (the Sir Ernest MacMillan Award for Canadian competitors, the award for best performance of a work by Marcel Dupré, and best performance of a work by a Canadian composer). Originally from the Philippines and Canada, he is an organist and pianist who enjoys multi-faceted careers as a musician and a materials scientist. Aaron's concert is at Trinity, October 16 at 3:30 pm. There will be a gala reception following the concert.

Aaron has won numerous noteworthy contests and scholarships including First Prize at the American Guild of Organists 2018 National Young Artist Competition in Organ Performance, the Toronto RCCO Young Organists Competition, the Osborne Organ Competition of the Summer Institute of Church Music (Ontario), the RCCO's National Organ Playing Competition, the Charlotte Hoyt Bagnall Scholarship for Church Musicians, the Lilian Forsyth Scholarship, the 2012 Poland International Piano Festival Competition, the West Chester University Organ Competition, the Arthur Poister Scholarship Competition, the Sursa American Organ Competition.

Around the Church

SANDWICH BOARD

Linda has been on vacation, so I will start with Sandwich Board. August saw an explosion of new faces and increased need! Our August average number of nutritious lunches served topped 200 per week. I guess that inflation has truly hit our guests. Many new faces. Many gracious thank yous for the service we provide. We expect some drop off as the kids go back to school, but I expect that the norm will soon be over 200 lunches per week.

We polled our contributing churches to see if they can keep up with the increased demand and found out that the Sandwich Board is going to need to come up with an additional 90 lunches per month to supplement the ones donated. Gratefully, Episcopal Charities extended our grant from last year and gave us $1,000 this year which will help meet our increased needs. We continue to distribute covid masks to anyone who needs them and just finished our second order of 10,000. When clothes of good repair are donated, we also distribute them. Children's clothes go fastest! As cold weather approaches we will also be seeking winter jackets and socks are always popular. Trinity prepares lunches six times per year.

Someone cut the receptacle off of our wonderful awning a week ago, for no reason! So we are going to have it hard wired in the weeks to come!

I also need to thank our dedicated volunteers and participating Churches. Without them this undertaking would be impossible! Please consider supporting this invaluable program!

Church

As we move into our regular time at Church after the summer break, it is so good to see the return of the Choir the return of the Bell Choir and the return of vestments! We welcome new members and visitors as we slowly see people return to in person worship.

We will continue our online presence. See the front page for the schedule of our online services. Join us on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/191161715155> or download Zoom and join us at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/3889192038?pwd=WFM5ZjNja1kzSlFoQXIZSHFsQTgrUT09>.

Quick solicitation. Trinity is now accepting on-line donations through a company named Vanco. There are two ways to access the on-line giving page: 1. Go to Trinity's website (www.trinityaurora.org) and click on the on-line giving tab. Or 2. On your smart phone open the Google Play Store, then search for Vanco Mobile Faith Engagements and download the app. Once installed open the App and follow the instructions. They are quite easy to follow. Accessing either of these will allow you to support Trinity and Trinity's missions in a variety of ways: you can support our daily operations, either the Endowment or the Memorial Fund, The Sandwich Board, the Organ Fund, the Building Maintenance Fund, our seasonal outreach programs or the Rector's Discretionary Fund. Give it a try!

As I sit here today, Marilou's painter is repairing the plaster hole in the ceiling of the Church. The scaffold is quite high! Hopefully, he will be able to take care of many of our roof problems and the leak in the office. It seems like the painter should be called 'the jack of all trades! He is also going to work on the leak in the roof and the damage the leak caused in the office! And he is reasonable!

Also, just in, Talented Tenth, the group that is planning to open a day care center in the basement of the Parish Hall is now in the final stages of preparing to open!. It will be so exciting to have them here! Stay tuned.

Remember the huge downpour we had on Sunday, September 11th? (Praise be to God for those who braved the rain to be here that Sunday.) Well, thanks to Gary and some strategically positioned sandbags we had no water in the Chapel! Amazing!

Francis of Assisi Friar, 1226

Francis, the son of a prosperous merchant of Assisi, was born in 1182. His early youth was spent in harmless revelry and fruitless attempts to win military glory.

Various encounters with beggars and lepers pricked the young man’s conscience, and he decided to embrace a life devoted to Lady Poverty. Despite his father’s intense opposition, Francis totally renounced all material values, and devoted himself to serve the poor. In 1210 Pope Innocent the Third confirmed the simple Rule for the Order of Friars Minor, a name Francis chose to emphasize his desire to be numbered among the “least” of God’s servants.

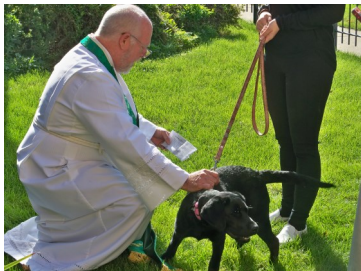

The order grew rapidly all over Europe. But by 1221 Francis had lost control of it, since his ideal of strict and absolute poverty, both for the individual friars and for the order as a whole, was found to be too difficult to maintain. His last years were spent in much suffering of body and spirit, but his unconquerable joy never failed.

Not long before his death, during a retreat on Mount La Verna, Francis received, on September 14, Holy Cross Day, the marks of the Lord’s wounds, the stigmata, in his own hands and feet and side. Pope Gregory the Ninth, a former patron of the Franciscans, canonized Francis in 1228, and began the erection of the great basilica in Assisi where Francis is buried.

Of all the saints, Francis is the most popular and admired, but probably the least imitated; few have attained to his total identification with the poverty and suffering of Christ. Francis left few writings; but, of these, his spirit of joyous faith comes through most truly in the “Canticle of the Sun,” which he composed at Clare’s convent of St. Damian’s. The Hymnal version begins:

Most High, omnipotent, good Lord,
To thee be ceaseless praise outpoured,
And blessing without measure.
Let creatures all give thanks to thee
And serve in great humility.

Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may for love of you delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. Francis, the son of a prosperous merchant of Assisi, was born in 1182. His early youth was spent in harmless revelry and fruitless attempts to win military glory.
