Dear Padre,

What is a "doctor of the Church"?

Institutions of higher learning confer doctorates on those who make significant contributions to a particular discipline. Likewise the Church, as an institution of higher enlightenment, confers the title "doctor" on those who have significantly illuminated Christ to his disciples.

Doctor is derived from the Latin docere, "to teach." While all saints are recognized for their exceptional holiness, popes or an ecumenical council may bestow the honorary title of "doctor of the Church" to saints with exceptional wisdom and learning. These rare individuals have contributed profoundly to a greater understanding of the faith, making a monumental theological or doctrinal impact on the Church.

The Church has thirty-six doctors. Saint Gregory of Narek was the most recently named in 2015. Saints Ambrose, Jerome, Augustine, and Gregory the Great were the original four. Saint Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274) was accorded the distinctions "doctor angelicus" and "doctor communis" for his purity of life and clarity of thought that were thought to stretch beyond the confines of the human intellect. Saint Catherine of Siena (1347–1380) became a "shuttle diplomat" as she developed peace treaties between warring political factions in Italy in the fourteenth century. Saint Teresa of Ávila (1515–1582), whose feast day is October 15, remains the hallmark of those seeking to engage in a more mystical spirituality. Saint Alphonsus Liguori (1696–1787) was named a doctor the quickest of all, a mere eighty-four years after his death.

These doctors proved themselves to be trustworthy guides for both protecting and developing the great treasure that is our faith.

YOU ARE CALLED:

We are called as a people of God, as members of the Catholic Church, and as parishioners of St. John's to stand up for our faith and to be Jesus' heart, hands, and feet. Jesus is calling us to do so by being the voice for the voiceless.

St. John's is committed to helping save lives – those of the unborn and those of their mothers – by standing and praying in solidarity at A Woman's Choice of Jacksonville, 4131 University Boulevard every Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Your presence and prayer lets the mothers know that they are not alone, that there are better alternatives than abortion, and that we can help. Please join the Respect Life Committee in this life-saving ministry. Your presence is welcome for any amount of time you can stand in prayer. Please call Jim Burton at (904) 234-8763 or Dottie Klein at 472-7869 for more information.

AMUSING ANECDOTE

During a visit to the mental hospital, I asked the director, "How do you determine whether or not a patient should be institutionalized?"

"Well," said the director, "we fill up a bathtub, then we offer a teaspoon, a teacup and a bucket to the patient and ask him or her to empty the bathtub..."

"Oh, I understand," I said. "A normal person would use the bucket because it's bigger than the spoon or the teacup."

"No," said the director. "A normal person would pull the plug. Do you want a bed near the window?"

Do you know a great, clean church joke? Send your submissions to ewiley@outlook.com.)
