Junior Debutante Membership Expectations

As a member entering my junior year of high school, who is not expecting a child, engaged, married and/or a parent and has a connection to Harlingen or attends or has attended school in Harlingen, I agree to adhere to the following expectations:

- Stay goal oriented for my future,
- Display a positive attitude,
- Display integrity,
- Stay respectful toward myself and others,
- Attend Cotillion Club of Harlingen's events,
- Do not use profanity, vulgar language or gestures or suggestive attire in any capacity (in person, in photos or on social media platforms)
- Stay kind, courteous, trustworthy, truthful, and polite at all times,
- Stay service oriented,
- Stay safe and maintain a healthy lifestyle (Use or possession of illegal contraband, alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, vape pens, etc. is prohibited),
- Debutante further agrees not to harm The Cotillion Club of Harlingen (CCofH), its advisors, board members, or chaperones' reputation through libel or slander.

We understand the challenges you face in today's society. However, as a member of The Cotillion Club of Harlingen, you were chosen because you exemplify qualities of strong morals and values while maintaining high expectations for yourself. Therefore, always strive to be your best.

The Cotillion Club of Harlingen is a private organization. If at any time, situations or behaviors that do not meet the expectations of The Cotillion Club of Harlingen are brought to the attention of The Cotillion Club of Harlingen's executive board or advisors, The Cotillion Club of Harlingen reserves the right to withdraw your membership from our organization immediately based on the circumstances, and you will forfeit all debutante fees. CCofH's decision to terminate memberships shall be final and cannot be appealed.

By signing below, you and your mother/guardian grant a photo release to the CCofH for the right to use your name and/or photos for marketing, acknowledge that you are aware of the consequences of inappropriate behavior, and agree to honor the expectations placed on you.
