Why I Write Love Stories

A simple reflection sheet — because your love story deserves to be told too 💕

"I was always a girl who loved love and happy endings — and I wanted to create that for other women who look like me." — Karlene Pitters

QUICK REFLECTION

What is a story — a book, a movie, a memory — that first shaped how you believe love should feel? Did you see yourself represented in it?

IN YOUR OWN WORDS

What does love mean to you — not the fairy tale version, but the real, everyday version?

THIS WEEK'S LOVE CHALLENGE

Choose one to practice this week. 💕

- 💕 Write down what love means to you, in your own words
- 💕 Reflect on one lesson from this whole series that stayed with you
- 💕 Tell someone you love exactly why you love them — out loud, today
- 💕 Give yourself permission to believe the right love is still coming 🌞

🌸 THIS WEEK'S AFFIRMATION

✦ READ THIS OUT LOUD ✦

"My story matters. My love story matters. I deserve to see myself as the heroine — worthy, whole and deserving of a beautiful, unforgettable happy ending." 💕💕

✦ WANT TO GO DEEPER?
