

Kits Coty Glamping Responsible Visitor Charter

Be a responsible visitor – things you can do to help save the planet.

- Save energy – switch off lights that are not in use and close windows and doors when the heating is on. <http://www.energysavingtrust.org.uk>
- Give the car a rest –leave the car behind, if only for one day. Details of local walks and public transport can be found in your welcome pack. Here you will also find local tourist information centre numbers. We provide two mountain bikes on site for you to hire
- Shop local: Use local products they give you a flavour of the area and help support local communities. If in doubt ask we can always give you some local information.
- Reduce, reuse and recycle- avoid overly packaged goods and say no to carrier bags. Please return, pass on or recycle any leaflets that you have finished with. Try to recycle any waste that you have by using our recycle bins. <http://www.recyclenow.com>
- Do not flush inappropriate items down the toilet. Please use bins provided in toilets.
- Support local Culture & heritage: Visit our important local heritage buildings and attend local events & festivals. That way you are keeping the culture and heritage alive.
- Be water wise - please use water wisely. Use bowl for washing up, don't leave tap running. Don't overfill your kettle, turn the tap off when brushing your teeth
- Respect nature: Help us look after our site the landscape and wildlife by not littering, guarding against fire and using footpaths, cycle paths and bridleways responsibly. Follow the country code when out and about in Kent's beautiful countryside. <http://www.countrysideaccess.gov.uk>
- Support Carbon Smart Businesses, there are hundreds of businesses trying to reduce their environmental impacts through the Carbon Smart Scheme. Businesses are awarded certificates for their achievements in becoming environmentally responsible. See their website for more details www.carbonsmart.co.uk

Most importantly we hope you have enjoyed your stay at Kits Coty Glamping and hope to welcome you again sometime in the near future!
