

ENERGY NOTICE

Attention Homeowner:

Electricity rates are expected to increase at higher intervals than typical.

With the expansion of electric vehicles, there will be massive demand to charging.

If you're receiving this notice, it's because your home is in a Net Energy Metering Zone.

Net Energy Metering Zones offer potential energy control programs.

Energy control offers caps on energy rate increases.

Net Energy Metering Programs:

- Reduced energy rates.
- Controlled future rates with caps on increases.
- No startup start up costs to save money.
