Tri-Com Central Dispatch Receives APCO P33 Certification
Agency will be recognized at APCO International's 78th Annual Conference

Saint Charles, IL—January 26, 2012— Tri-Com Central Dispatch has met or exceeded the minimum training standards for the Association of Public-Safety Communications Officials \(APCO\) International Project 33 Training Program Certification-2010 and has been awarded certification as of January 12, 2012.

Public safety agencies utilize APCO Project 33 Agency Training Program Certification as a formal mechanism to certify their training programs in meeting APCO American National Standards (ANS). Initial and continuing training for public safety telecommunicators is important as they provide essential services to the public in an expanding and rapidly changing public safety environment.

Gregg Riddle, president of APCO International said, “Public safety standards are important as they ensure our staff is receiving and employing the most up-to-date information and tactics. We thank TriCom Central Dispatch and staff for their unwavering dedication, perseverance in the public safety industry and their commitment to strategic emergency service procedures.”

Tri-Com Central Dispatch will be recognized at the Distinguished Achievers Breakfast during APCO's 78th Annual Conference, August 19th-22nd in Minneapolis, MN.
