4 WHISTLES

COME SING WITH US! ALL ARE WELCOME!

The Mid-Columbia Mastersingers organization offers several opportunities to sing in our choirs: Chamber Choir, Symphonic Choir, Treble Choir, and Columbia Chorale

Chamber Choir: voice placement hearing, project schedule typically 6-8 weeks, challenging repertoire, high level of personal preparation and musical independence, includes a cappella selections and languages other than English

Columbia Chorale: no voice placement hearing (just come and sing!), project schedule typically 10-12 weeks, accessible repertoire, little to no level of personal preparation, typically includes selections accompanied by piano

Symphonic and Treble Choirs: voice placement hearing, project schedule typically 8-10 weeks, moderate repertoire, some level of personal preparation and musical independence, includes selections accompanied by symphony/chamber orchestras and occasionally in languages other than English; Treble Choir is for sopranos and altos

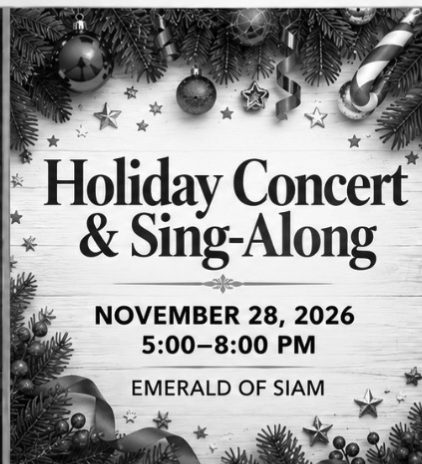

Please contact Artistic Director Justin Raffa at jraffa@mcmastersingers.org with any questions and to request to be added to the singer roster. Please indicate:

1. I want to join Columbia Chorale! (no placement hearing)
2. I want to do a voice placement hearing for the performance choirs!
3. I want to do an advanced audition for the performance choirs and potential solo opportunities!

Love's Pure Light at Christmas - December 18-19

*Mid-Columbia Mastersingers Artistic Director
Justin Raffa has announced that 2026-27
will be his final season with the organization.
His final concert will be in June of 2027.*

Justin was hired in the summer of 2008, joining MCM as they were undergoing a comprehensive rebranding effort and name change. He followed a roster of distinguished conductors: Estyn Goss, Reg Unterseher, Cyril Myers, and Robert Bode. As MCM's longest serving Artistic Director, Justin helped engineer major organizational changes with a goal to become more community-centric, including significant growth of its annual operating budget and staff, an increase of its singer roster to over 350 members, an expansion of its ensemble offerings from one to four, its merger with longtime Tri-Cities mainstay Columbia Chorale, large scale collaborations with local arts organizational partners, and the creation of an annual partnership called Mid-Columbia Arts Fundraiser.

The Mid-Columbia Mastersingers is celebrating its 40th Ruby Anniversary season in 2026-27, and has been dedicated to its mission to transform lives through the power of choral music since its founding in 1986 as Consort Columbia. Raffa and the MCM Board of Directors have a season of special choral projects and surprises planned to make this 40th anniversary and his final season one to remember.
