DIRECTOR’S NOTES ON THE PROGRAM

Welcome to our Spring 2024 Program, entitled “A Way With Words.” This evening, our musical selections explore the profound impact of words, from the timeless texts of Shakespeare and Robert Frost to the spiritual richness found in scripture and hymns born from adversity. We will also present contemporary pieces that reflect on the powerful influence our words have on one another.

Through song, words transcend their written form, becoming a vibrant force that can alter perceptions, deepen emotions, and enrich lives. Tonight, as our voices lift these words from the page, we invite you to experience their beauty not only in how they sound but in how they resonate within us, prompting us to see the world anew, feel more profoundly, and engage more fully.

We hope that tonight’s performance inspires you to reflect on your own power of expression and perhaps discover your own way with words.
