

The Pain Threshold

The Neuroscience and Spirituality of Suffering

Hear About New Treatments for Chronic Pain !

FREE & Open to the Public

Tuesday, February 6, 2018 ~ Starts promptly at 6:00 p.m. doors open 5:30
Congregation Nevei Kodesh, 1925 Glenwood Dr., Boulder

Panel of local professionals will discuss:

~ the psychology of chronic pain

~ the neuroscience of pain and why we are each so different in how we feel pain

~ the spiritual side of pain and suffering

~ the politics of substance abuse and chronic pain

Ilene Naomi Rusk, PhD, Neurobehavioral Consultant, Trauma-and Neuro-therapist, Co-Director Healthy Brain Program, Brain & Behavior Clinic, Director of Health Education for Grillo, Panel Convener and Moderator

Charles Horowitz, PhD, Psychotherapist and Educator. Co-founder of Pain Partners of Colorado, Leader, Boulder Chronic Pain Support Group

Steven Wright, MD, FAAFP, FASAM, Diplomat, Family Medicine and Addiction Medicine, Consultant, Educator & Speaker on Pain Management, Addictions and Controlled Substance Abuse

Tor Wager, PhD, Professor of Psychology, Neuroscience, and Cognitive Science and Director of the Cognitive and Affective Neuroscience Lab, University of Colorado, Boulder

Thomas Richardson, LAc Diplomate, Oriental Medicine, Clinician, Scholar and Teacher of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine, M. Theology, Harvard, Faculty of Southwest Acupuncture College

Please sign up at GrilloCenter@gmail.com by February 2
seating is limited call with questions 720-854-7293