Are there any other witnesses in the Bible that show this name change?

One place where the translator of the King James version of Acts knew the name of Joshua is seen below:

Acts 7:44-45 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David"

Here the translators used the name Jesus to describe Joshua Son of Nun. If the motive of the translator was to create a new name for the Messiah (the name Jesus) for use in other parts of the New Testament, this chapter exposes the fact that they were aware of the true name Joshua, but chose to use a different name. It is also a huge error to hide the character of Joshua in the Old Testament from the reader's immediate view of the New Testament. For one, this is deleting from or adding to the Word of God! Secondly, to know that the Messiah's name is actually Joshua is hugely important to how we understand the character of the Messiah from the Old Testament, so it is possible to recognize patterns in the development of the character, and to understand prophecy. Even Constantine's Bishop Eusebius knew that the Messiah's name is Joshua, which he wrote all about it in his Ecclesiastical Church History (book 1, chapter 3), where he cites Numbers 13 verse 16, and also states that the childhood name of Christ was 'Oshea' or Hosea, which is Numbers 13 verse 8. So, citing this section of scripture and writing about the Messiah as Joshua is completely consistent with the Greek Name Ἰησοῦς, Iēsous. Note that this 1820s translation of the book, in the margin, says that "Jesus is by some corruption of the name Joshua."

Joshua in Prophecy

In places like the Book of Hosea, we see a narrative that is all about an adulterous wife who transgresses against God, whom God had previously divorced, but now God calls her back to himself for forgiveness and redemption through his Son; a similar narrative we find in Jeremiah this name, which had never been uttered among men, before Moses, he applies first to him alone who, by a type and sign, he knew would be his successor after his death, in the government of the nation. His successor, therefore, who had not assumed the appellation Jesus,* (Joshua,) before this period, being called by his other name Oshea, which his parents had given, was called by Moses Jesus, (Jehoshua, Joshua.) Num. xiii. 17. This name, as an honourable distinction, far superior to any royal diadem, was conferred on Joshua, because Joshua the son of Nun bore a resemblance to our Saviour, as the only one after Moses, and the completion of that symbolical worship given through him, that should succeed him in a government of pure and undefiled religion. Thus Moses attaches the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ, as the greatest honour to two men, who, according to him, excelled all the rest in virtue and glory; the one to the high priest, the other to him that should have the government after him. But the prophets that lived subsequently to these times, also plainly announced Christ before by name; whilst at the same time they foretel the machinations of the Jews against him, and the calling of the Gentiles through him. Jeremiah bears testimony, speaking thus: "The breath,† (the spirit,) before our face, Christ the Lord, was taken away in their destructions; of whom we said, under his shadow will we live among the nations." Lam. iv. 20. David also, fixed in astonishment, speaks of him as follows: "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against his Christ." To which he afterwards adds, in the person of Christ himself: "The Lord said to me, thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee; ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession." Ps. ii.

* Jesus. By some corruption of the name of Joshua, Eusebius calls him Auses. Jesus is the Greek form, for the more Hebrew Joshua. The Septuagint invariably use the former, and in one instance it is retained in our English version. Heb. iv. 8.
† This passage from Jeremiah is rendered as the above from the Septuagint, as quoted by Eusebius. In our English version, the force of the allusion is not perceptible, and one might look in vain for the passage as rendered here; but the Hebrew fully admits the Greek version here given.

3, and other places in the prophets. In prophecy, this “woman” also represents a church who follows after other (small g) gods and idols; and in Hosea the woman is from a group of people referred to as (spiritual) Ephraim. We also see the use of Hosea in Deuteronomy 32 to refer to Joshua Son of Nun, the New Song of Moses (a song that only the 144,000 can learn to sing, as told in Revelation 14) is all about end times judgement between God’s people and the rest of the world for this sort of corruption. This New Song of Moses quotes the book of Hosea upwards of 20 times and closes out the narrative with telling you to keep the 10 Commandments and speak it in the ears of his people and “Hoshea son of Nun” (Deut 32:44).

There are various characteristics of either Joshua Son of Nun or Joshua son of Jeho-zadok in the prophets, who has connection with the True Prophet Yeshua, the Son of God.

How a book gets converted between languages and why it is a problem in this case.

Different Bible versions have an approach using either Transliteration or a Translation to make sense of the message between two languages. With a transliteration, the scribe uses the sound of a word they are attempting to replicate in the second language, not necessarily attempting to preserve the meaning of the word! Whereas, with a translation, the meaning of a word is attempting to be preserved. Ideally, we want both to be preserved, but sometimes the linguistic structures between languages doesn't allow for an easy correlation and duplication.

With Greek and Latin being "Inflected" languages, the form and spelling of words is changed to show its grammatical role in a sentence and its various conjugations. For instance: In Latin, word endings like "a" or "am" can infer a feminine sense; where as a "us" or "um" ending can infer a masculine sense. Greek has the same usage of gender. There are variations in word endings for singular words compared to plural words; and between endings that indicate subject versus object in a sentence. A word like "God" in English, in Latin might be written "Deus" (as a nominative singular word), whereas a possessive form might be "Deu", a dative form "Deo" or an accusative form "Deum". For the name of Christ, use and meaning of the case endings are dependent on where and how the name is used in context, and we see the following:

Case	Singular	Function	Use
Nominative	Iesus	subject	'Name'
Genitive	Iesu	possession	of Name
Dative	Iesu	indirect object	To / for Name
Accusative	Iesum	direct object	Name, not subject
Ablative	Ieu	means, separation	By/from/with Name
Vocative	Iese	Direct address	'O Name'

If there wasn't more to the story regarding how the name Jesus came about, one might simply assume its Latin form created this English form, and this argument is simply one over semantics. However, we already showed the importance of Joshua in prophecy, so this disconnect goes deeper than a simple word ending change.

The Greek Word "Ἰησοῦς" Iēsous is a word that was "transliterated" from Hebrew to Greek. The scribe who created a copy of this word in the New Testament chose to use transliteration when describing Name of the Messiah, in place of a translation. Whether or not it was a good or bad decision at the time; what is clear in the Bible, the Name of God and the Name of the Son are of supreme importance to the salvation message: something we are even supposed to be "Baptized in" (Matthew 28:19)! The meanings of these words are prophetic and connected to God's Doctrine (as it says in 1 Tim 6:1 and James 2:7), so we must be careful not to blaspheme "that worthy name by which you are called."

The available manuscripts of the New Testament that existed at the time the English translations were taking place were primarily in Greek, even though most of the narrative is of Hebrew origin. Some of the words they chose to convert only used the sounds. The choice of converting words by only the sounds has a compounding error when transliterated between more than one language. So, the word becomes a transliteration of a transliteration of a transliteration. Had they preserved the word between the root word and the new language without all the bridging, the Name of the Messiah may have been actually preserved instead of transforming it into a corruption of the original. The Hebrew language is also one that is rich and deep where most of the words, even the letters of the alphabet, have an imputed deeper meaning, which greater than its face value meaning. An example is the name (אַבְרָהָם) 'Avraham' which was changed from 'Avram,' and means "father of a multitude", which is exactly his function in prophecy. The Greek word for 'Avraham' is (Αβρααμ) and is pronounced 'Avraam' is also a transliteration, but a close match between Hebrew and Greek. The Latin language doesn't have a "v" sound, but it does have a letter that looks like it, but is pronounced as a 'u' sound. So, the letter 'b' was introduced as a substitute, and with its masculine word ending "us," we end up with 'Abrahamus', which in English became Abraham. English also introduced a new letter "j", a letter that is not even 500 years old, complete with its new sound. Now this 'Jesus' word, the "Name that is above all Names" (Phil 2:9) is not only completely disconnected from the root language, but begins with a new sound. There is a reason why Jews reject this name and immediately assume it is of pagan origin, because it is simply not a Hebrew word, nor does it have any root Hebrew meaning. For most words in the Bible, we can give them a pass because many times this transliteration doesn't affect the base narrative of salvation. However, with Christ it is different, because the Bible says his Name (both speaking it and knowing it) is of high importance to salvation. If there be any Name that is sacred in the Bible it is the Name of the Father and of the Son! As it says in Acts:

Acts 4:12 "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

Ἰησοῦς = Joshua in English = Yeshua in Hebrew
Yehoshua (יְהוֹשֻׁעַ - long form) in Hebrew
Yeshua (יֵשׁוּעַ - short Form) in Hebrew.

This Hebrew name means "Yehovah is Salvation". A knowledgeable Jew hearing this word "Yeshua" will also understand its meaning. Speaking the name 'Jesus,' this cannot be done. One can only impute this characteristic meaning onto the name because of its narrative context, but the literal word does not automatically mean "salvation" in English, nor does it convert to Hebrew. The Book of Enoch prophetically speaks about recording words correctly:

1 Enoch 104:8-9 "They shall speak evil things; they shall utter falsehood; execute great undertakings; and compose books in their own words. But when they shall write all my words correctly in their own languages, they shall neither change or diminish them; but shall write them all correctly; all which from the first I have uttered concerning them."

What does the Messiah have to say about this?

John 5:42-43 “But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name (Yehovah), and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name (Jesus), him ye will receive.”

The above verse shows (added in brackets) is an interpretation of where the Father's name (Yehovah) belongs and where (Jesus) is implied. The context of this chapter is Christ is pointing people to believe his witness based on the Old Testament writings of him. A major theme in the Old Testament is how Israel whored after other gods that they made up, complete with sacrifice to idols, which God often complains about as they speak His Name in the name of other gods! See the book of Hosea, or Deuteronomy 18 and 32, or Jeremiah 5,14,23, 27.

Bottom line - The Father's Name is in the Name of the Son!

How do you know 'Yeshua' was spoken to anyone else in Hebrew in the Bible narrative?

Acts 26:14-15 “And when we were all fallen to the earth, I (Paul) heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am ~~Jesus~~ (Yeshua) whom thou persecutest.”

Eusebius in his church history quotes Papias (an early church Bishop, who was an associate of Polycarp and a “hearer of John”) states that the first version of the book of Matthew was written in Hebrew, and the Greek was a third copy. So, it is no surprise that in Matthew chapter 1 there is a Hebrew word pun:

Matthew 1:21 “And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name ~~JESUS~~ (Yeshua): for he shall save his people from their sins.”

In addition to all mentioned, if we were to use the Greek language to literally make the word sound like “Jesus”, assuming Jesus is the correct Name as many assume from the English Bibles, the transliterated word would not be Ἰησοῦς Iēsous but it would be spelled Τζι-ζας Jee-zuz. Now, this is not a legitimate word in meaning, but this is created by only the sounds, showing how this approach is a problem.

I = Iota
η = Eta σ = small sigma ο = omicron υ̐ = Upsilon
ς = Final Sigma

“Iēsous”

T = Tau
Z = Zeta

Another way this transliteration approach might form such a name is by the numbers. In the Greek, the Gematria for the Numbers we see the following (also connected to this verse below):

Revelation 13:17-18 "And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

600	χ = Chi
60	ξ = Xi
6	ς = Stigma

Che ze-sus"

Isa 44:10 "Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?"
Isa 44:13 "The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man..."

Maybe this is all just coincidental, but it is certainly interesting to think about how the sounds of these letters is like the pronunciation of 'Jesus'. Even though the name 'Jesus' is all over the English Translations of the New Testament, and called out as the Name of the Messiah, can we be so naïve to assume that Satan won't have his hand in corrupting the Word of God and attacking the Name? Can we be so naïve to blindly trust what is printed in the book is infallible? Is the Bible a magic book with words so sacred they can't be questioned; or, is there a reality here we must contend with to come to truth? We need to be careful to not jump to conclusions about anything without rich study. Nor should we sacralize a book that is a copy of a copy of a copy. At no point should we push our own desires and lusts upon what the Word says—doing so leads to Idolatry and "works of men's hands" --the "Christian" church has a 1700 history of doing such dead works! We all know that the original writing from God to his servants is the inspired word, and God is infallible; but, when men deliberately interfere with how the word is written as a copy, making even subtle changes in grammar, changes in word endings, distorting Idioms and metaphors: great damage can be done to the original meaning, leading to apostasy. Jeremiah 8:8 even tells you that there is something called "the lying pen of the scribe". This is why it is important to compare Older more original copies to the newer copies, and study out the original languages in their historical context.

The pagan Kings who conquered Israel multiple times, such as the Greeks under Alexander the Great, and the Romans, intentionally forced Israel into creating changes to their religion for political purposes and military control, including the commissioning of translations, so that the conquerors could read and manipulate it. The Romans did this with every tribe they conquered throughout Europe! The Jews that were captured by Babylon in the 6th century BC, when they came out of Babylon 70 years later, they brought with them pagan ideas (a form of Zoroastrianism) and mixed their doctrines into the Torah: a worship based on Babylonian gods like Tammuz, complete with a calendar of moon and season cycles, and influencing them to write a book of opinions called the Talmud, which is now used as the primary text the Jews follow in place of the Torah. Newer raised up Judean Sects in the 2nd century BC, who also came out of Samaria (Dosithean sorcerers), helped influence the rich Elite of Judea who became the Sadducees, and along with the Hasideans who formed the Pharisees; effectively supplanting the Levites in the Temple, and adding their own opinions and oral laws on top of the existing burden of law. These groups removed the name of God (Yehovah) 6,828 times in their official copy of writings, treating the name as “too sacred to pronounce”, yet secretly preserving the name between high priests only. Later persecutions by the Romans over names like Yehovah (יהוה) solidified the Jews position to only use substitute names like Hashem and Adonai when describing God. These kinds of changes also affected Christian theology during their pre-Constantine persecutions. So, if corrupt copies of the Bible exist, removing both the Name of God and the Son, how can anyone form the connection of the Name for Salvation when the Bible says over and over things like:

Rev 22:3-4	“The Name of God will be on their foreheads”
Joel 2:32	“everyone who calls on the name of Yehovah will be saved”
Acts 4:12	“no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved”
John 1:12	the children of God are those who “believe in his Name”
Acts 10:43	“forgiveness of sins through his Name”
1 John 5:13	“believe in the Name of the Son of God”

Key verses in the Old Testament that shows the Name of Salvation (Yeshua) in the Hebrew:

Isa 52:5-6 “Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.”

Isa 52:10 “The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation^{H3444} (Yeshua) of our God”

Deuteronomy 32:15 “But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.^{H3444}”

Isaiah 12:2-3 “Behold, God is my salvation^{H3444}; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD YEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation^{H3444}. Therefore, with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.^{H3444}”

Habakkuk 3:13 “Thou wentest forth for the salvation^{H3444} of thy people, even for salvation^{H3444} with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.”

Deuteronomy 18:18-19 “I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. “

On the right, we see Mr. Strong has his Concordance already establish the names based on his 40 years of research of Hebrew and Greek, more than 100 years ago.

The Doctrine of the Son is as corrupted as his Name!

Often, we hear lazy Christians say things like “the Bible does not use the name Yeshua” (saying this exact spelling is no where to be found); had they only done their homework instead of opening their pie hole, they might have found it; and in the Hebrew, it is all over the Bible. If they are this lazy in their study, the fact is, the Bible says God will not reveal his name unto them, but only unto his servants, who are also the ones getting saved.

All false versions of the Son are all about how he is manageable by people, and how he fits in neatly into people’s lifestyles and superstition. The True Yeshua makes you uncomfortable in your sin and your worldliness, and calls you out of it, and teaches you obedience to God. One is a Character that you built. The other is the True Prophet who was sent by God to build you!

Isaiah 28:16 “Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.”

In cultural and theological discussions, the phrase "cultural Jesus vs. the biblical Yeshua" is often used to contrast the historical biblical Messiah with a diluted or the culturally altered perception of Him: made popular in modern secular or consumerist culture using endless amounts of hype and propaganda. Christ has a mixed presentation in the narrative that at one hand is kind and gentle, but on the other hand is authoritative and even violent, depending on context. The Christian church often throws out the version they don’t like in favor of the other, even twisting meaning and definitions to fit the narrative they want. The two versions of the Messiah are:

Most of the false doctrines Christians push involve any one or all of the following: cherry picking scripture, not understanding the Old Testament, not keeping things in context, twisting Paul's words, misunderstanding Paul, throwing out things they don't like to hear while keeping the promises and blessings, having Covetous practices and other forms of Covenant breaking that leads to error and curses that come in the form of delusions, wise in their own conceits, pride, idolatry, making money and similar such things.

Repentance is deemphasized, and sin is managed. The differences in the character and doctrine explained by the churches compared to what the Bible actually says in full and in context, it can't be any clearer that these are describing two very different Messiahs; especially when you separate out the pleasant side of Christ from the unpleasant and pick and choose what you want him to be. One becomes Fantasy Jesus and the other is King Yeshua. The contrast gets even worse when you keep reading the warnings:

Mat 24:4-5 "And Yeshua answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many."

Mat 24:23-4 “Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. “

2 Thessalonians 2:3-12 “Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God....For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

How many Christians today are saying “Jesus is God?”

This statement is a sin of blasphemy, the very sin that the Pharisees used as a charge against Yeshua in order to crucify Him, but now the Christians are exalting that very form of blasphemy, to place the Son of God in the very place of God himself! It is insanity! This is breaking the First and Third Commandment, which of course breaks them all. This behavior is also discussed in Jeremiah 23, discussing prophets and pastors who lie:

Jeremiah 23:13-32 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it? Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury...I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal. The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD. Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words everyone from his neighbour. Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith. Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD."

Creating a god by the "work of your own hands" is (according to the Bible) the spiritual equivalent to worshipping Ba'al: just as the Canaanites did, and every culture that adopted the related pagan traditions and customs of Babylon: things like Christmas and Easter.

With everything said above, would it be a surprise to find out that the birthday of Jesus that all the Christians celebrate once a year, on December 25th, which everyone knows is not the Messiah's actual birthday, just so happens to correspond to the birthday of the Canaanite God Ba'al, over the winter solstice? Ba'al, the god of many names who is also called "Saturn" or "Zeus" or "Jupiter" or "Mithra" or "Ra" or "Sol" or 'Esus', depending on which adjacent culture we are talking about. All of these skygods had a trinity of characters. All of these skygods had a similar story. All of these cultures performed child sacrifice as part of their worship! Rome being the last, most deeply rooted of pagans who took control of the Christian Faith under Constantine, who was also a High Priest of Mithra, proceeded to blend paganism with Christianity. Eventually Rome went as far as outlawing anything related to the original faith of the Apostles and Jews. An example is found in things like Canon 29 of the council of Laodicea saying:

"Christians must not judaize by resting on the Sabbath, but must work on that day, rather honouring the Lord's Day; and, if they can, resting then as Christians. But if any shall be found to be judaizers, let them be anathema from Christ."

It may be no coincidence that the Druidic God "Esus" sounds very similar to "Jesus". Or the Hindu God "Krishna" sounds very similar to "Christ." Or the saying, "Jesus H Christ": Jesus Horus Krishna. Or, IHS the Isis Horus Serapis. Or by the phrase that Constantine coined based on his dream of the cross of Tammuz, saying In Hoc Signo "by this sign you shall conquer".

What do other scholars think about all this?

Quotes by Henry Tichenor "Creed of Constantine, we need a new religion" 1916

"The prophet of Christendom is not the gentle Jesus; neither is the gospel of brotherhood and peace the Christian creed. The prophet of Christendom is the Emperor Constantine, and the Christian creed is the decision of the First Council of Nice. This council, held under the auspices and authority of Constantine, repudiated the human Joshua, and created in his stead the mythical Christ; it changed the day of worship from the Jewish Sabbath (Saturday) to the pagan Sunday; it decreed the doctrine of eternal torture; it ordained the holy days and ceremonies, the sacred rites and festivals, all in accordance with Roman mythology; it gave us the Trinity-the three gods in one; and it gathered together the legends and fables that three centuries of illiterate "holy fathers" had conceived and written, from a mass of myths"

Tichenor goes on to write

"Constantine, like Napoleon, was a warrior-that is, he was a human butcher by profession. He usurped the throne and was proclaimed Emperor by his troops in the year 306." While masquerading in the name of Jesus. Constantine did the following:

- Killed Maxentius and his two sons (who could be rivals to taking the throne)
- He worshiped the old religion and pagan gods.
- Murdered his wife, Fausta while suffocating her in a boiling bath
- Murdered his own son Crispus
- Murdered Licinius who married his sister and her 11-year-old child
- And many others of his own blood relation.
- Had his image stamped on one side of a coin while on the other side an image of Elijah
- His subjects were commanded to stop worshipping Jupiter, Diana and Apollo and instead to worship Jehovah, Christ and the Virgin Mary

"The ignorant masses never knew the difference, between their old religion and the new one...The best that could be said of Constantine was that he was insane."

Conservative writer Dean Dudley says:

"In regard to the Canons and Decrees: I think the best time for the Easter Festival would have been the ancient, honored day of the Jewish Passover. It was opposed merely by a whim of Constantine, because, as a Roman, he hated the nation which his country had long detested and persecuted, that is, the Jews. His change in the Day of Rest arose from the same unjust prejudice."

In His Name – E Christopher Reyes writes

"Being the Pontifex Maximus, the Head Priest of the Pagan cults, the emperor is exceedingly displeased that the pagan faiths do not truly accept him as one of their own, and hence forth the pompous Emperor Constantine will impose his own version of the truth upon his Empire. Tertullian acerbically states that, "No man can become Emperor and remain a Christian."

Walter Nigg, in his writing "The heretics, heresy Throughout the Ages" said

"Being in the evolutionary process of a rising religion let the emperor pick and choose which beliefs and rites are to be recognized, "Constantine who treated religious questions solely from a political point of view, assured unanimity by banishing all the Christian Bishops who would not sign the new profession of faith. In this way unity was achieved. It was altogether unheard of that a Universal Creed should be instituted solely on the authority of the Emperor, who as a catechumen was not even admitted to the mystery of the Eucharist and was totally unempowered to rule on the highest mysteries of the faith. Not a single Bishop said a single word against this monstrous thing."

Other References

"The smooth generalization, which so many historians are content to repeat, that Constantine "embraced the Christian religion" and subsequently granted "official toleration", is contrary to historical fact and should be erased from our literature forever (Catholic Encyclopedia, Pecci ed., vol. iii, p. 299, passim).

So, if it is "contrary to historical fact" that Constantine embraced the Christian religion, what makes us think he embraced the divine ruler of it? Why do we find inconsistency in translations by all of these Catholic sponsored committees? Why do we find Homosexuals on these committees? Why does the church not talk about the Messiah as a Joshua? How is it that what the Bible describes as the Catholic Church, it describes her as the "Great Whore" who also produced many "harlot daughters," which is the Protestant Reformation, which now expanded to 45,000 denominations. Doesn't Paul say "have no divisions among you"?

And do each of these churches have their own "personal Jesus?"

Is this what Matthew 24 prophesied, that there will be many Christs...and believe them not!

More witnesses in the Bible.

In Hosea chapter 2, we see a narrative describing how Israel will be taken on a second Exodus; there are a number of chapters that talk about a 2nd Exodus, including Jeremiah 23, but in this narrative, we see a group of believers who have the name of Ba'al taken out of their mouths!

Hosea 2:16-23 "And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali. For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely. And I will betroth thee unto me forever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God."

This is end times prophecy folks! This is history yet to happen: when a remnant of Bible believing Christians will be taken into the wilderness and will be retaught Covenant and have the name of Ba'al taken out of their mouths! Who today from the Christian churches talks about the literal name of Ba'al? Nobody! Therefore, God talking about another name, a name that is false! A name that is common. A "new god that came newly up" (Deut 32). A "work of men's hands."

Jeremiah 16:20-21 "Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods? Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Yehovah."

Proverbs 30:4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

If the Son of God, who came in his Father's name is Yeshua. Then according to the Bible, one can only conclude the name of Jesus is the name of Ba'al! This is not blaspheming the Son of God! This is not breaking the Third Commandment! Calling the Messiah by his actual name Yeshua--is proclaiming His proper name, the only one that can save!

Hidden Manna

There is one more interesting thing in the Bible. A man by the name of Jacob Rambsel found that there is also a hidden Bible code. One of these codes (which appears 4-5 times in different places) spells out the Son of God's actual name in a pattern of skip sequences of letters. Here we see in a key chapter, discussing the crucifixion of the Lamb in Isaiah 53, starting with verse 10 under the phrase "prolong his days", and the first Hebrew letter 'Yod' counting backwards 20 letters it spells out Yeshua Shmi or "Yeshua is my name".

Who are these pork eating, Christmas loving, Christians coming against the true servants of God and saying they are of the devil?

The same servants who gave up their lives to study the Bible in depth, and proclaim the Word of Truth? The same group who God revealed His Name and his Son's Name unto them: and they call us a group of devil worshippers? We must be in good company with Messiah, for even He was called by the Pharisees of his day “He has a devil” (Matt 11:18). These bastards are all over Tic Tok, and they even creep into people’s houses leading away silly women laden with sins, and diverse lusts” (2 Tim 3:6). Ezekial 34 and Jeremiah 23 Pastors, who the watchmen are called to rebuke sharply, are the same one’s railing against the servants, who the Name of God and the Son has not been revealed unto! These are the wolves—do not listen to them! These are children of disobedience whom the wrath of God is appointed unto, who walk in the power of the prince of the air, which is Satan (Eph 2 / Col 2). They are “Dumb dogs who cannot bark” (Isa 56:9-12).

1 John 3:4-6 “Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law (of God). And ye know that he (Yeshua) was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.”

This means those who Keep God’s 10 Commandments are those abiding in Christ and are not in sin. Those not keeping the 10 Commandments are in sin! Keeping the 10 means you “know him” and as it says in John 14 as you love him you will receive the Holy Ghost.

1 John 3:7-10 “Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.”

If you don’t keep God’s 10 Commandments and Fulfill the Royal Law, you are of your father the Devil!

Straitisthegate.net did not write the Bible, we only preach it!

Modern day church Pastors make up what the book says in their head, they invent gods that are no gods, and vomit all sorts of mischief out of their filthy mouths! Church doctrines across the board do not conform to the Book!

So, if Jesus is Ba’al, and is contrary to Christ Yeshua, where else can we get understanding on who this Jesus guy is?

2 Thessalonians 2:1-4 “Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord ~~Jesus Christ~~ (Yeshua Messiah), and by our gathering together unto him, That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.”

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

What temple is this? Is this the ultra-hyped up Jewish 3rd Temple? Maybe? What is it more likely to be according to the Bible?

1 Corinthians 3:16 “Know ye not that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?”

Revelation 21:3 “And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.”

2 Thessalonians 2:5-12 “Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

Jesus is Ba'al: related to the pantheon of pagan gods

Canaan	Egyptian	Druidic	Greek	Roman	Babylon	Catholic
Ba'al / Tammuz	Amun/Ra	Esus	Zeus	Saturn / Jupiter	Nimrod / Tammuz	Jesus
Tanit	Isis	Brigid	Hera	Juno	Semiramis	Mary
Eshmun	Horus	Lugus	Asclepius	Aesculapius	Gula	Raphael
Astarte / Asherah	Hathor	Epona	Aphrodite	Venus	Ishtar	Mary
Resheph	Seth	Camulus	Apollo	Apollo	Shamash	Michael
Mot	Osirus	Sucellos	Hades	Pluto	Nergal	Satan

Parallels to ancient religious traditions with Catholicism

Canaan	Babylon	Roman	Celtic	Catholic
Baal-Mot cycle	Nimrod / Tammuz cycle	Saturnalia / Janus	Yule / celtic midwinter	Christmas / New Year
Baal-Mot cycle	Inanna / Ishtar	Attis / Cybele	Ostara / Imbolc	Easter
Rapi'uma / Rephaim	Riś/Yeni	Mundus Patet	Samhain	Halloween

All of these traditional ancient religious holidays have similar comparisons, and even borrowed aspects that were handed down and passed around to many pagan cultures. Not all of these fell on the same day of the month, but many have correlations with the various sun and moon cycles, the solstices, fall, winter and spring festivals, fertility festivals and also rites involving child sacrifice. But the stories between these religions have all the same basic narrative of a Father - Son and Mother story, death and resurrection, and seasonal cycles, as well as common symbols like an Evergreen tree that they would decorate during certain times of the year.

In the Catholic religious system, aspects of faith practice in the Bible were mixed with Roman paganism. This includes characters in the Bible that are assigned to one of the various Roman pantheon of gods. We know that the mother of Christ is Mary, and Mary was a real person, but the Catholics assign titles to Mary such as "Queen of Heaven," and make idols to her, and gave her titles of divine prowess such as a mediator, healer and blessed in fertility. None of these characteristics actually exist in the Bible narrative for these people. However, titles like "Queen of Heaven" is mentioned in the Bible, but not to Mary: to a pagan fertility goddess named Ishtar (Easter). There is a mediator in the Bible, but that is not Mary, that is only for the Son of God (Yeshua). Bottom line, this religious version called Catholicism is just a rebrand of various ancient pagan religions with a veneer of "Christianity". Now the Bible and its narrative is true, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are true. The Son of God (Yeshua) is true. The Apostles Christ appointed to setup the church is true. Rome's hijacked version of Christianity is patently false, based on a mass of myths! The funny thing is, is that the Bible tells you all about it. The Bible exposes all of these things and even explains what these people might even say in their false interpretations of scripture.

We are living in the literal biblical end times. We are approaching that season of wrath shortly. God is exposing and making known his Truth in order to expose the lies and workings of Satan through His servants. People will have a choice: accept the True Messiah and repent and start to obey him; or, follow after traditions of men and their vain interpretations of cherry-picked scripture. You get to decide to keep the Sabbath on the 7th day of the week Saturday (from dawn to dawn) or keep the 1st day of the week on Sunday, after a pagan sun God invented by Rome. This is the difference between being Children of God or of the Devil: having the Seal of God or having the Mark of the Beast! Will Yeshua Messiah (The True Prophet) be written on your forehead, the only Name that can save; or, will you have Ba'al written on your forehead and have a lie on your right hand? As said in Jeremiah 23, "what is the wheat to the chaff?"

Repent and be baptized in the Name of Yehovah and Yeshua!
