I therefore, bound of Yehovah, invite you that you walk worthy of the invitation you are called. With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one Faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

~Ephesians 4:1-6~

Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

Psalms 116:14

I will pay my vows unto Yehovah now, in the presence of all his people

I repent from my sins against Yehovah. I vow to never put anything above my love for Yehovah. I vow to never worship any idol or graven image, or commit spiritual adultery by worshiping false gods. I vow to never take Yehovah's name in vain. I vow to remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. I vow to honor my father and mother. I vow to never commit murder or adultery, steal, lie, or covet anything of my neighbors. I vow to love Yehovah, with all my heart, mind, and soul, and love my neighbor as myself.

If you love me, keep my commandments.
