

WHEN A PLUMBING PERMIT IS NEEDED

PERMIT NEEDED

PERMIT NOT NEEDED

Replacing water heaters and any underground piping.

Repair or replace a sink, faucet, toilet, or showerhead.

Altering piping beneath the floor, in the wall, or in the ceiling.

Replace a hose bib.

Remodeling or adding on to existing plumbing.

Install new piping less than 5 feet in length.

New installations where one did not previously exist.

It gives readers information or directions on how to do something.