PROJECT
CAMBRIDGE

HOW?

That's right – when it comes to events, no job is too big or small. We've looked after international athletes, celebrities, media, got our hands dirty setting up and breaking down globally televised events and were privileged to have worked behind the scenes at the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II.

PROJECT CAMBRIDGE

We're experienced in making major live events happen. If you need someone to be a roving mic, a front of house or a runner, or maybe something else, we would be delighted to roll up our sleeves and help!
