

FIELD TRAINING OFFICER CERTIFICATION

Hosted by

Fallon Police Department

August 27-30, 2024 ~ 0800-1700

The classroom at Public Works Department
327 N Maine Street, Fallon, NV

$200 per person

Instructor - Eric R. Radli

Instructional Goal

The student will understand the basic objectives, requirements and skills in becoming effective Field/Facility Training Officers.

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to, from memory:

Identify the critical issues in a successful FTO program

Write the major steps in the termination process

Identify the most significant aspect to look for in selecting an FTO

Differentiate between objective and subjective evaluations

Determine if an evaluation (Daily Observation Report) is filled out properly

Identify the meaning of "Limbo"

List the sections of an FTO Manual

Identify training procedures for lateral transfer probationers

Determine the correct usage of the Standardized Evaluation Guidelines

Identify the usefulness of role-playing and

Identify the general duties of the FTO Supervisor

San Jose model of FTO

Point of Contact - Emily

erassmussen@fallonnevada.gov

775.423.0167