In the Shadow of the Steeple
-penned by a teen in Canton, Texas-

*In the heart of our nation, the children cry.
And under thousands of our bridges, people die.
Yet, in the shadow of our steeples, Christians hide.
Afraid of the world outside.*

*The drunk on the corner doesn't even know his name.
But our Father who art in heaven
loves him still the same.
Paper sacks and cardboard boxes hold
the children that shiver inside.
Yet, in the shadows of our steeples, Christians hide.*

*People talk of foreign missions in villages all alone.
Yet we overlook the greatest mission, the one that's here at home.*

*A young girl stands on a street corner,
hoping there will be someone to care.
But no one stops to help her even though they see her there.
And still in the shadow of our steeples,
Christians hide.*

*So, I ask you now, church people -
Will you be the one to care?
To help those people, or will you be caught hiding in the shadow of your steeple?*

Thanksgiving Is a Lifestyle

I was privileged to worship with my family this past Sunday at FBC, Tyler, and heard my pastor, Pike Wisner, preach a wonderful Thanksgiving message. He coined a word I had never heard before, GratiTosity, which amused the congregation. It is derived from the combination of gratitude and generosity. He delivered an excellent sermon encouraging us to focus our minds and hearts on the real purpose of the Thanksgiving holiday. He stated that both words are so very complementary and that they go to the heart of what it really means to be a Christian. Especially when we find ourselves in a difficult or depressing situation, the best thing we can do is pray and ask the Lord to help us seek out and minister to someone who is in need. Focusing on others, besides oneself, is the best way to put one's witness to its best use. Jesus was, is, and will always be the best example of GratiTosity as He freely gave of Himself, even death on a cruel cross! How is it that believers can be so inwardly and selfishly focused that thinking only of those within their closed circle is the only thing worth their time, energy, and resources? It is my prayer that every SBA believer is passionate, with an attitude of gratitude and generosity. Such attitudes become a commitment that results in a lifestyle that He can use to change the world. A life of thankfulness becomes a life filled with praise and fulfillment. Serving others is one of the main founding blocks of building a meaningful Thanksgiving Holiday. May GratiTosity be utmost and ever-present in the minds of the SBA Family, not just during this heartwarming season, but in every season of the year!

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name." Psalm 100:4

"Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts... and be thankful." Colossians 3:15

It was a blessing to join the Faith Baptist Church family for the SBA Dedication and Deed Acceptance of their newly acquired facilities in Owentown. Dr. Maurice McMillion shared the great news that nine people had joined the church earlier that morning. Dr. Danny Pickens delivered a wonderful dedication message, and everyone enjoyed a great celebration day!

I also wish to express my appreciation to the Hispanic pastors and their wives for the invitation to join them at their end-of-year luncheon. Lynne and I were very blessed to be with you.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving,
Brother David
