BIO:

A staple along the Texas Gulf Coast, the Galveston-based Brandon McDermott Band has been captivating audiences across the Lone Star State with their electrifying brand of Texas Music for years.

Their second full-length album, Across The Causeway, achieved remarkable success, amassing over 250,000 streams across streaming platforms. The album featured the Top 50 Texas Music Charts single, "43rd and R," the wildly popular and heavily streamed single "Hear Your Name" and even a special guest appearance by Texas music legend Ray Wylie Hubbard.

Building on this momentum, the Brandon McDermott Band is set to release their highly anticipated EP, Dreams Or Something Else. This five-track collection dives even deeper into their signature Texas Country sound, blending heartfelt storytelling with soaring melodies and authentic emotion. Known for their dynamic live performances, the band continues to grow as artists while staying true to their roots. With their latest release, they are ready to captivate both old and new listeners as they embark on the next exciting chapter of their musical journey. Whether you prefer mud on your boots or sand between your toes, the Brandon McDermott Band has just what you need.
