

A background image of a glassblowing workshop. In the foreground, a glassblower is shaping a tall, slender glass vessel on a rotating wheel. A bright, intense flame from a gas torch is applied to the upper part of the glass. In the background, another glassblower is visible, working on a similar piece. The scene is filled with the warm, glowing light of the furnaces and the rhythmic motion of the craft.

A close-up, artistic photograph of a glassblowing process. Molten glass is being poured from a vertical tube into a glass mold. A bright, intense flame from a gas torch is directed at the glass, creating a vibrant orange and yellow glow. The background is dark and industrial, with various metal components and tools visible. The overall atmosphere is one of craftsmanship and fire.
