DEDICATED TO HELPING OTHERS

I am currently working on my LPC degree at Amberton University located in Garland, Texas. I'm seeking a position to complete my practicum-I and practicum-II classes and internship. My practicum-I, class starts June 14, 2018.

- I am motivated to cause good, growth and gain in the lives of others. I am also insightful as to the personality, intentions, emotions, ethics, values, and moods of people. I am effective in helping to develop other employees or interacting with customers.
 - I derive personal satisfaction from directly helping others.
 - I desire to share ideas with the intent of helping people.
 - I truly enjoy being part of the team and will contribute to the team's success.
 - I thrive on change and know how to capitalize on it. It is important that I have enough change and variety.
 - I understand the meaning of ideas and words and use them effectively in written or oral communication. I have the ability to express key concepts.
