Meet With Me

At the core of Dawn's work you can always identify compassion, integrity, and transparency.

Dawn welcomes complex problems with grace and analytical thinking, continuously striving for her clients' long-term success.

In 2017, Dawn founded Creach Consulting Group to focus on her passion of supporting providers and improving patient health through care delivery transformation and innovative payment models. She has worked with hundreds of health care organizations and several health plans.

Dawn has 20+ years of experience in various settings including state government, an independent provider association, leading a statewide quality improvement initiative, and conducting research and evaluation at OHSU. She is also a founding member of Oregon's Primary Care Payment Reform Collaborative, fulfilling the role of an "expert in primary care contracting and reimbursement."

As a sociologist, Dawn brings a systems-level perspective and a diverse set of skills to help solve complex problems with the needs of patients, families, providers, and diverse communities at the forefront.

Dawn enjoys staying active with her four-pawed best friend including agility training, scent work, and exploring the trails in Central Oregon. You can also find her rocking out at music concerts, practicing yoga, and cheering on her favorite sports teams.
