

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Children's Books and Brothers with a Purpose

Australian Shepherd brothers, Max & Tucker, heroes of Max & Tucker Adventures, help rescue animals in the woods of Northern Virginia.

FAIRFAX, VA, March 11, 2020

It started with a simple trip to the woods, like most weekend mornings. It turned into a series of children's books and affiliations with local non-profit organizations.

"Deer Oh Deer is a wonderfully written and beautifully illustrated book with a powerful message of wildlife rescue."

– R. David Fulcher, Author

In their first book, Max and Tucker, Australian Shepherd brothers, were headed to the woods for an early morning walk on Easter Sunday when they were met with a surprise. Lily & Lucy, beautifully illustrated by Emely Pascual, a student at Virginia Commonwealth University, is a heart-warming story about taking action; "Just Act! Imagine the story you will inspire." Families will enjoy reading Lily & Lucy together. Proceeds from this true story are donated to the Lost Dog & Cat Rescue Foundation.

In their second book, Max & Tucker, Australian Shepherd brothers, were doing what they enjoy most: playing in the woods and creeks of Northern Virginia when they came across a deer which had been stranded after a heavy rain. With the help of their Daddy, Max & Tucker rescued the deer and watched over her until she was strong enough to go on her way. This exciting adventure is about being rescued by those we set out to rescue.

This true story, which occurred in the Spring of 2017, is captured in the wonderfully illustrated children's book: Deer Oh Deer: A Max & Tucker Adventure. Proceeds are donated to the Wildlife Rescue League of Falls Church, VA.

Both books are available on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and Books-a-Million, as well as in eBook format on Kindle and Apple.

Keep an eye out for Max & Tucker and their new adventures and remember, "Just Act! Imagine the story you will inspire." and "Those we rescue, really rescue us."
