SECTION 1 Introduction

1.1 Scope

This Document Retention and Destruction Policy applies to The Centennial Owners' Association (hereinafter the "Association") and the Association's Board of Directors.

The documents maintained by the Association's legal counsel are not subject to this Document Retention and Destruction Policy.

1.2 Purpose

This Document Retention and Destruction Policy is created to establish guidelines for identifying, retaining, storing, protecting and disposing of the Association's Documents (the "Documents"). This Document Retention and Destruction Policy is necessary to ensure that the Association conducts itself in a cost-effective manner while also adhering to legal and business requirements.

1.3 Policy

- A. It is the Association's policy to maintain complete and accurate Documents. Documents are to be retained for the period of their immediate use unless longer retention is required for historical reference, contractual or legal requirements, or for other purposes as set forth in this Document Retention and Destruction Policy.
- B. Documents that are no longer required or have satisfied their recommended period of retention are to be destroyed in an appropriate manner.

- C. The Management Company, in consultation with the Board of Directors, responsible for ensuring that Documents are identified, retained, stored, protected and subsequently disposed of, in accordance with the guidelines set forth in this Document Retention and Destruction Policy.

1.4 Board Members

The Association does not require individual Board Members to maintain any Documents. Board Members in their discretion may dispose of Documents generated by the Association because the Association has maintained such Documents in the Official Files. However, if Board Members receive Documents relating to the Association, which were not generated by the Association, or not received through the Association, Board Members shall send the originals of such Documents to the Management Company to be maintained in the Official Files. Documents created by Board members for their own use as a member of the Board of Directors, including but not limited to notes, drafts, emails, summaries, etc. are not Documents of the Association and should be destroyed by the Board Member once an Association Document is produced or within six months of creation, whichever is sooner, unless otherwise provided herein. E-mail discussions among Board members shall be saved by the board pursuant to this policy. No Board Member shall disclose or provide any Document to any owner outside of the Board of Directors. Directors shall direct Owners to make a formal request to the Association pursuant to its inspection of records policy.

1.5 Annual Purge of Files

The Association shall conduct an annual purge of files. The annual purge of files shall be completed within the first quarter of each calendar year.

1.6 Destruction Procedure

All Documents to be purged or destroyed pursuant to this Document Retention and Destruction Policy shall be shredded, or otherwise destroyed, and permanently deleted electronically, if stored in an electronic format.

1.7 Miscellaneous

There may be an immediate destruction of copies of any Document, regardless of age, provided that an original is maintained in the Official Files of the Association.

1.8 Onset of Litigation

At such time as the Board or the Association has been served with a lawsuit, or if it is reasonably foreseeable that litigation may be imminent, all Documents potentially relevant to the dispute must be preserved notwithstanding anything in this policy to the contrary.

Therefore, at the direction of legal counsel the Board Members, and any other person who may maintain Association Documents, of the facts relating to litigation. Thereafter, all Documents potentially relevant to the dispute shall be deemed "held" until such litigation is concluded and all appeal periods have expired. At the conclusion of the litigation the "hold" period will cease and the time periods provided in the Document Retention and Destruction Guidelines will recommence.
