Prelude

Welcoming

Call to Worship (based on Psalm 46:1-3)

Leader: God is our refuge. God is our strength.

People: God helps us in times of trouble, we will not be afraid even when the world falls apart.

Leader: When the mountains crumble into the seas,
when the waters roar and rage, when the mountains
shake,

People: We will not be afraid.

Opening Hymn: He Touched Me 367

Prayer of Confession

Blessed Redeemer, as we go through each day we find ourselves confronted by temptation. We are tempted to treat others in ways we would not wish to be treated. We are tempted to treat ourselves in ways that do not dignify the gift of the Spirit you have placed within us. We are tempted away from that which is righteous and towards that which gives us only momentary satisfaction. Forgive us, we pray. Lead us from our tempter and show us the way which leads to life everlasting. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon with the Gloria Patri (Hymnal #70)

Hymn: It Is Well with My Soul 377

Sharing our Joys and Concerns

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

First Scripture Lesson: 1 Peter 5:6-11

Second Scripture Lesson: 1 Corinthians 10:1-13

Sermon: ½ Truth, God Won't Give You More than You Can Handle

Affirmation of Faith

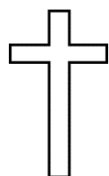

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold fast: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day, and that he appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses.

We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus Christ is the first and the last, the beginning and the end; he is our Lord and our God. Amen.
