ACCOMODATIONS We have booked a block of rooms for the event in two locations. Fifteen very basic rooms are available above the main hall for $45 a night with 20 more private cottage rooms close to the main hall for $75 a night. The rooms are being held in the name of the Fayetteville Traditional Dance Society. To reserve one of the blocked rooms, please contact Rebecca at Mt. Sequoyah, 479-443-4531. Cutoff date for the blocked rooms is October 9th.

MEALS With your registration, four meals are provided: Friday potluck lunch, Saturday breakfast in the cafeteria and catered lunch in Parker Hall kitchen. Sunday breakfast also catered in Parker Hall kitchen. Friday and Saturday evening meal is on your own with plenty of restaurants 5 minutes away on Dickson Street, around the Fayetteville square, and on College Avenue.

WEATHER The weather in November is variable so bring layers for any outdoor activities. It is typically 60's in the day time and 40's at night. The public social dances will be inside Parker Hall.
