A candidate shall run for one elective office only. If nominated for more than one office, the member shall be required, prior to the close of nominations, to designate the office for which they wish to run; failing to so designate, they shall be a candidate for the office for which they were first nominated and shall be deemed to have declined the other nomination.

Members nominated in absentia must file their written acceptance within five (5) days of the meeting where the nomination was made.

Each ballot will include the candidates for the following positions: President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, the Board of Trustees, and the Executive Board position that represents the area of the voter receiving the ballot. A separate ballot can be used for the Executive Board position, provided it represents the voter's primary area of employment. The seal of this organization shall be placed on the ballots.
4. Every voting Member's name must appear on the most recent "list of dues paid" before receiving a ballot. If a Member's name does not appear on such list said Member must pay dues owed before receiving a ballot. Members who owe dues shall be given notice of such to allow them the opportunity to pay dues and receive a ballot by mail or electronically. Said notice shall be sent by email or first-class mail within five (5) working days after the nominations and candidate's speeches at the September Membership meeting. If there has proven to be an omission of a Member's name in error, such Member shall be reimbursed dues over paid.
5. Upon the polls being declared closed, the American Arbitration Association shall open the ballot box and have the ballots counted (or electronically counted) and report the results in accordance with their procedures and rules. The election results shall be posted within two (2) business days after certification is received from the American Arbitration Association. All officers shall be elected by plurality vote.
6. Any candidate shall have the right to have an observer who must be a Member in good standing in the Local present at the polls and the counting of the ballots. Any bona fide candidate shall also have the right, once within the period of thirty (30) days, to inspect the list of Members but not to copy same.

Section 5. - By-Elections

Any position not filled at the Tri-Annual election, or that is vacated for any reason during the term of office, shall be filled at the next regular meeting or special meeting, if one is called.

Mail or email notice of said meeting shall include written notice of the positions to be filled at the meeting. Mail or email notices must be postmarked or emailed fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting.

Members unable to attend this meeting who wish to be elected must provide written notice to the Local's offices prior to the meeting of their intent to accept the position, if so elected.

Any Member in good standing may nominate any other Member in good standing who is eligible to fill the office. The Presiding Officer shall confirm, before candidates' speeches, that each person is eligible for the position to which they were nominated.

After nominations, the presiding officer shall appoint an Election Judge and two Tellers to assist the Judge. Each candidate, or their designated representative, shall be given the opportunity to give a campaign speech. The Election Judge shall then distribute ballots to all persons present who have been confirmed to be members in good standing as of the date of the meeting. The Election Judge shall direct the members to write the name of the candidate of their choice for each contested position. The Election Judge, or a Teller, shall assist any member who is unable to complete their ballot without assistance. The Election Judge shall direct each member to fold their ballot and deposit it in the designated election box. When all ballots are so collected, the Election Judge and Tellers shall count the ballots. Each candidate, or their designated representative, may observe the counting of the ballots. The Election Judge shall immediately announce the results of the balloting to the full membership meeting.

Said monthly compensation for the President shall be reduced by $150.00 (one-hundred and fifty dollars), for the Vice President shall be reduced by $100 (one-hundred dollars), and for the Secretary-Treasurer shall be reduced by $200 (two-hundred dollars) for each Executive Board and/or Membership meeting the officer fails to attend.

In the event of an unexcused absence, the absent Executive Board Representative's pay shall be decreased by 50% (fifty percent) for each unexcused absence.

An Officer or Executive Board member who is regularly scheduled at Universal Studios Hollywood for the time of an Executive Board or Membership meeting may, pursuant to the provisions of the collective bargaining agreement, get excused from work to attend said meeting. In that case, the Union shall reimburse them for lost wages in addition to the compensation set forth herein. Reimbursement for lost wages shall be requested in writing on the form provided by the Union and may be verified by the Union.

The Local will reimburse Officers, Executive Board Members and Shop Stewards when they are required to take time off of work to conduct Union Business. A wage reimbursement report will be presented to the Executive Board at their monthly meetings.

If attendance at an Executive Board or Membership meeting is excused as provided herein, then the compensation of the Executive Board member shall not be reduced for failing to attend the meeting. An excuse for failing to attend a meeting may be given in advance for a bona-fide reason if approved by two of the three Officers. However, in those months when there is a regularly scheduled Membership meeting, each Steward shall be paid the $50 (fifty dollars), $100 (one-hundred dollars), or $150.00 (one-hundred and fifty dollars) only if they attend the Membership meeting. In the event of an unexcused absence, the Steward's pay shall be decreased by 50% (fifty percent) for each unexcused absence. The term "Associate" shall only refer to compensation and length of service; all other references to Stewards herein shall apply to all Stewards, including Associates.

In that case, the Union shall reimburse them for lost wages in addition to the compensation set forth herein. Reimbursement for lost wages shall be requested in writing on the form provided by the Union and may be verified by the Union.

If attendance at a Membership meeting is excused, as provided herein, then the compensation of the appointed Steward shall not be reduced for failing to attend the meeting. An excuse for failing to attend a meeting may be given in advance by the President or designee. In this case, the Executive Board may also require independent verification of the basis of the excuse.

An Officer or Executive Board member also appointed a Shop Steward shall receive compensation for both positions.

An accused who pleads guilty to charges shall be deemed to have waived their right on any appeal to raise any question concerning their guilt or innocence and their appeal in that event shall be limited to the question of the appropriateness of the penalty or penalties imposed upon them. No stenographic transcript or tape recording shall be required if a plea of guilty is entered in accordance herewith.
