

SEDA will hurt Fresno communities

Fresno's proposed Southeast Development Area (SEDA) plan will direct taxpayer money toward building new infrastructure across 9,000 acres currently outside city limits.

The rest of us will pay the price for years to come as we watch our own streets crumble.

The City Council will soon vote on SEDA. So, the good news is that we still have time to stop it!

stopSEDA.org

Stopping SEDA will protect them

SEDA will hurt Fresno communities

Fresno's proposed Southeast Development Area (SEDA) plan will direct taxpayer money toward building new infrastructure across 9,000 acres currently outside city limits.

The rest of us will pay the price for years to come as we watch our own streets crumble.

The City Council will soon vote on SEDA. So, the good news is that we still have time to stop it!

stopSEDA.org

Stopping SEDA will protect them

SEDA will hurt Fresno communities

Fresno's proposed Southeast Development Area (SEDA) plan will direct taxpayer money toward building new infrastructure across 9,000 acres currently outside city limits.

The rest of us will pay the price for years to come as we watch our own streets crumble.

The City Council will soon vote on SEDA. So, the good news is that we still have time to stop it!

stopSEDA.org

Stopping SEDA will protect them

SEDA will hurt Fresno communities

Fresno's proposed Southeast Development Area (SEDA) plan will direct taxpayer money toward building new infrastructure across 9,000 acres currently outside city limits.

The rest of us will pay the price for years to come as we watch our own streets crumble.

The City Council will soon vote on SEDA. So, the good news is that we still have time to stop it!

stopSEDA.org

Stopping SEDA will protect them