About Our Program

Alpha & Omega Learning Center is a Christian based program. We do nothing without praying and waiting for the Lord to lead us the way that we should go. We are a new branch of TAN-D Enterprise, which was established in 1985, by Dr. DeLois Jackson. We opened our doors to the community 9 July 2012, with 2012 Summer Day Camp. Day Care opened 6 August 2012. We truly believe that “We can do all things through Christ who strengthens us”. We are dedicated to making a difference in the lives of the children and families we serve. As we grow, we pray that we will be able to offer more services to our families. We are far from perfect, but we are believers and striving for perfection.

Absences & Tardiness

It is very important that everyone works their scheduled days and hours that are posted. Being present and on time is essential for getting our daily work done efficiently and effectively. Therefore, every employee is expected to be in their designated work area on time and ready to work. If absences and tardiness become excessive you will face certain disciplinary actions and possible termination. A verbal reprimand will be given for first occurrence. A letter of counseling will be given for the second occurrence. Reprimand after three unexcused absences and tardiness is grounds for termination of employment.

Attendance Policy:

Your timely attendance at work is crucial to making Alpha and Omega Christian Learning Center run smoothly. Timeliness fosters a good working environment as tardiness and absences hinder teamwork among co-workers. The following policy is intended to ensure that you understand what is expected of you as an employee of this Center, and the consequences to you for not meeting these expectations. This policy affects all employees. The goal of this attendance policy is to reward good attendance.

If you submit your leave request to management, and it is not approved on the basis of teacher-child ratio, and you fail to report to work it will result in immediate termination of employment.

Punctuality Requirements:

1. Should it become necessary to be absent, the employee must notify the Director at least two hours prior to the scheduled shift for an unanticipated absence. Relatives and/or friends calling-in for an employee are not acceptable except under emergency situations.

Failure to follow the proper notification procedures will result in corrective actions which could potentially include termination of employment.

2. Being tardy for work will be considered grounds for corrective action. Attendance will be taken every day by the Director. A&OCLC uses a point system and does not distinguish between attendances, excused or unexcused absences.

Each absence = 1 point (no multi-day occurrences)

Each late in (tardy) or early out = ½ point

Each no-show for work = 2 points

Each return with no prior call = 1 point

Each absence-free quarter eliminates all points. Each employee starts fresh, with no points each year on January 1st.

Disciplinary Action:

2 points = verbal warning

3 points = written warning

4 points = 3-day suspension without pay

10 points = termination

3. Management may require documents of a reason given for tardiness. We may also verify such documentation when appropriate.

4. You will not be permitted to make up lost time due to tardiness unless you are requested to do so for the benefit of the Learning Center.

5. Exceptions: There are times when tardiness is unavoidable or the need to be tardy arises within two hours of a scheduled shift. Therefore, exception may be made to the above policy on a case-by-case basis. If you feel that your situation qualifies as an exception, you must speak directly to the Director.

6. Attendance at staff meetings is mandatory. Failure to attend without prior supervisory approval will result in disciplinary action.

Hours missed and overtime:

If you miss work for any reason, the making up of hours missed is NOT authorized. You are only authorized to work the hours you were assigned at the time of hiring, unless your immediate supervisor has authorized different hours. Overtime is NOT authorized for any employee. You are required by policy to track your work time and note your time on your timesheet. If overtime is required to accomplish the task/job you are working, you must first obtain permission from your supervisor or manager. Failure to do so constitutes a violation of Center Policy.

Failure to follow these procedures will result in disciplinary action and possible termination.

PLEASE NOTE: This is a policy and not a contract, and it is subject to change at management's discretion. Nothing contained within the above policy alters the at-will nature of your employment at this Center.

As an employee of Alpha & Omega, you will be required to wear a uniform. During your 90 day probationary period of employment you will need to wear a purple or gold top and black pants. After which your uniform will consist of an agency issued shirt, black pants and sneakers provided by you. If you come to work improperly dressed, you will be asked to change or clock out. You will be issued 2 shirts after you complete your 90 days probation. It is the responsibility of the employees to replace shirts as needed to keep up a professional appearance and to comply with dress code. Agency issued shirts must be returned to the center before receiving your final paycheck.

Personal Appearance

Here at Alpha and Omega Learning Center, as part of the staff handbook, we strive for a safe and professional work environment for our staff, families, and children. To ensure this level of safety and professionalism, there are certain standards of dress and appearance that staff members must maintain while on the job. Staff members are prohibited from wearing excessive jewelry, piercings, tattoos; for example, nose, eyebrows, cheeks; and no excessive hair coloration such as, neon or fluorescent hair coloring should be visible while on duty; or any other distractions that would prohibit us from maintaining professionalism. We understand that many professionals choose to have these adornments as part of their personal life. However, we feel that it is best to keep them out of view within the school/workplace setting so that we can all have a unified visual look when interacting with guests, agencies, other staff members, parents and children.

Employees are required to wash their hands prior to entering a classroom and/or making contact with children and food.
