

TENNESSEAN WARNING

Before I ask you to give any information, data practices laws in Minnesota require that I explain to you who can have the information you give me and how this information will be used.

The information you give may be used by our staff and other governmental agencies.

You have the right to refuse to answer our questions. However, if you refuse to answer our questions we will conduct our investigation and make our decision without the information you may be able to provide.

What you provide will be kept private, only you and the governmental agencies that need the information may have it, others may not receive this information without your written consent.

If you would like further information on how we use and protect the information we collect from you along with your rights, we will provide, upon request, a pamphlet on Minnesota Government Data Practices.

I have read and understand the above information.
