

Pre-Service CD #2

Discipline and Punishment

1. What is the difference between discipline and punishment? _____

2. Name 2 harsh and 2 mild forms of behavioral consequences?

Harsh:

Mild:

1. _____

1. _____

2. _____

2. _____

3. Give 1 myth about spanking and in your own words describe why it is a myth: _____

4. Name 3 key factors when handling unacceptable behavior:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

5. Jack is a 4 year old boy that has been in your home for over three weeks. He is playing with the new toy truck in the corner of your living where he has played everyday since he entered your home. You are in the kitchen putting away dishes when you realize that you need to leave for Jack's visit with his mother who he has not seen since he entered your home. You yell for Jack to put his truck away and wash his hands. Jack does not listen and when you repeat what you said he throws his truck at your six year old daughter and proceeds to start punching the floor and crying screaming that he hates his mother.

Using the scenario give 5 ways to you could prevent and react to Jack's inappropriate behavior:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. Using the same scenario give an "I" message you could say to Jack: _____

Permanency

7. Name 2 permanency principals:

1. _____

2. _____

8. The Indian Child Welfare Act was signed in _____?

9. Name the 5 types of permanency:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

10. Give 3 ways to help a child make the transition into foster care and/or out of foster care:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

11. Who should be apart of the permanency planning team? _____

12. Give 2 or 3 values of kinship care:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

13. Name 4 ways to communicate with children in foster care:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

Using the CD fill out these worksheets:

PSYCHOSOCIAL RISK FACTORS

In the child
Family Experience
Family Characteristics

PSYCHOSOCIAL PROTECTIVE FACTORS

In the Child

In the family

Social Support from outside the family

Signature

Date